

100 Of University Faculty Begin Teaching Trainees

Approximately 100 University faculty members began instructing trainees in the Army Reserve Training Program here with the beginning of the new quarter Monday, Dean Leo M. Chamberlain has announced.

Of these one hundred, approximately 25 are on the staff of the engineering college, almost the entire staff of which is engaged in teaching the trainees, Chamberlain said.

The need for instructors in technical subjects has necessitated that some faculty members teach courses in which they have been trained, though outside their major fields, the Dean stated.

Among those who are teaching subjects foreign to their regular classes are: Dean T. T. Jones, ancient languages, mathematics; Dr. B. B. McInteer, botany, geography; Dr. D. V. Hegeman, German, history; Dr. C. M. Knapp, history, geography; Ab Kirwan, football coach, history; Victor R. Portmann, journalism, algebra.

Dr. G. B. Dimmick, Edward Newbury, and Dr. M. M. Ratliff, psychology, history; Mrs. Alberta Server, romance languages, mathematics; Dr. M. E. Ligon, education, geography; Dr. W. W. Jennings, economics, history; Dr. E. Z. Palmer, economics, mathematics; and Willis C. Tucker, journalism, English.

Physics, Math To Be Taught

Refresher courses in mathematics and physics in connection with the Army Specialized Training Program began at the University this week with professors, students, and townspeople in attendance.

The first meeting of the mathematics class taught by Dr. C. G. Latimer, professor of mathematics, was held Tuesday night in McVey hall. Dr. W. S. Webb, head of the physics department, is teaching the physics class which meets on Monday night in Pence hall.

These classes are being taught in an effort to help fill the government's need for teachers in the fields of mathematics and physics. The United States Department of Education is authorizing the courses.

Qualified persons who are interested in the courses are urged to attend the class meetings by University officials. No tuition charge is being made. The only expense to students is that for necessary books and classroom supplies.

K Book For 1943 Goes To Press

The K book, published annually by the YWCA and YMCA, will go to press this week, according to an announcement by Bart Peak, YMCA secretary. The booklet, which is distributed to freshmen, will also be given to servicemen this year.

The purpose of the K book is to aid freshmen in becoming acquainted with the campus. It lists all organizations, both honorary and social, and also contains a social program for the freshmen and a list of clubs and activities open to them.

This year's issue contains a sport section reviewing last year's sports events. Publications are listed and their purpose explained. The purpose of the YWCA is given and the preamble to the SGA constitution is also included.

Editors are James Hurt and Claudine Mullinaux. Contributors are Vincent Spagnuolo, Norman Chrisman, Carolyn Spicer, Betty Tevis, Stuart Snyder, Merl Baker, Betty Lee Fleishman, June Baker, and Edith Weisenberger.

"Birth Of Blues" Set Monday

"Birth of the Blues," starring Bing Crosby and Mary Martin, will be shown Monday night, August 16, in the Union building.

The movie, which is a musical, will review a number of songs from "The Saint Louis Blues" to the present days.

Only one showing of the feature is scheduled. It will begin at 5:45 p.m. Admission is 10c.

Opinion On Fourth Term Is Divided

By Doris Singleton

The opinion of students is divided on the question of whether or not President Franklin D. Roosevelt should run for a fourth term, if the United States is still at war, it was revealed in a poll taken this week by The Kernel.

Many expressed the view that Roosevelt should definitely not run for a fourth term because it is against the democratic principles of the country. They added that three terms in the White House is more than enough for any man. To hold such an eminent position for such a long time is too great a strain, and many feared that Roosevelt's health would break if he continued at such a great speed. The opinion was expressed by several that Roosevelt could be replaced by someone who is a better business man. They said that a forceful, wise man will be needed to clean up after the war. Another said, "I wouldn't want to see Roosevelt elected again because, in my opinion, he doesn't have a good post-war policy."

One student said that the war could not be used as an excuse for Roosevelt to run again because the war may continue for ten years, and one man could not and would not be expected to hold the office that long. He continued by saying that the party now in power is taking advantage of the war situation to enforce their own policies and that they might continue to do so if they were allowed to remain in office indefinitely.

On the other hand, many said that Roosevelt should definitely run again and be elected because "it would be extreme foolishness to change horses in the middle of the stream." Politics and the war should not be mixed, so it would be wiser to keep the same man in office.

Roosevelt should remain in office for the duration of the war, many said, because he knows more about foreign affairs, knows the situation better than anyone else, and would be more capable of directing the war effort.

Women's Fall Gym Classes To Be Held In Gym Annex

Women's gym classes for the fall quarter will be held in the Gym Annex on Limestone street, C. W. Hackensmith, acting head of the department of physical education, announced yesterday.

The women's physical education courses were formerly held in the Women's Gym which is now housing soldiers. Sixty-two men have been provided with sleeping and studying accommodations in the building.

Hackensmith said that the Gym Annex would be divided in half, with the handball courts being made into a small gym and locker room for use by women. The women will also have the use of the showers and one of the gyms in the Annex.

The other gym in the Annex will be used by men, for whom showers and one small room in the Men's Gym have been reserved, Hackensmith added.

African Hero Visits Lexington

Capt. Gordon Sympton, former University football player, who was the first American soldier ashore in Morocco in the invasion of North Africa, is spending two weeks in Lexington prior to reporting for duty at Fort Benning, Ga.

Sympton also led the first infantry battalion that entered the city of Bizerte in Tunisia. He was commander of a battalion known as "The Raiders" before the battle of El Guettar and led these men in several important engagements.

The Silver Star and the Order of the Purple Heart were awarded Captain Sympton during his service in Africa.

Tea Will Be Held For Wacs, Avon Men

Tea will be served Sunday afternoon from 4 to 6 in the Jewell hall lounge in honor of the Wacs and Avon men and their wives who will be taken on a USO tour of the campus, Miss Rankin Harris, director of Jewell hall, has announced.

The committee in charge of the affair consists of Virdena Floyd, Carolyn Hill, Pat Patterson, Mary Glen Rose, Winnie Lewis, Mary Jo Underwood, June Nicholson, Nancy Wilson, Mary Vance Day, Mattie Carpenter, Eloise Seay, and Bernice Pace.

Smoke Richardson To Play At Dance

Smoke Richardson and his orchestra will play for an informal dance Saturday night in the Bluegrass room of the Union building from 8:30-11:30, Miss Dorothy Collins, social director of the Union, has announced.

The informal dance is being given for students and all service men stationed in Lexington by the Student Union board in cooperation with the Stopover Station. Girls will be asked to present hostess cards, either those of the Student Union or the Stopover Station, at the door. There will be no admission charge.

The committee in charge of arrangements consists of Mrs. Louis Haggin, who is representing the Stopover Station, and two students, Virginia Smith and Micki Bogan.

Chaperones will be Miss Jane Haselden, assistant dean of women, Mrs. Elizabeth Moores, Mrs. Louis Haggin, Mr. Bart Peak, Mrs. Desha Breckinridge, Mrs. Baylor Landrum, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hettel, Mr. and Mrs. Vertner Slade, and Mrs. Mary Potts.

Health Building To Have Infirmary

The third floor of the Health building is being renovated into an infirmary for soldiers stationed on the campus, Dr. John S. Chambers, director of the dispensary, has announced.

Approximately 30 to 40 beds are being placed in the infirmary, according to Chambers. A fire escape is being built on the back of the building as a safety measure, he added.

Kernel Calls Staff Meeting

There will be an important meeting of all Kernel staff members at 3 p.m., Tuesday, in the Kernel news room. It is compulsory that all staff members attend this meeting.

Shelton To Address

The Reverend Gentry Shelton, assistant pastor of the Central Christian Church, will address a joint meeting of the YMCA and YWCA from 6:15 to 7:15 p. m.

2,500 Enrollment Expected In Fall

Prospects for enrollment for the Fall quarter were termed "fairly favorable" by Dean Leo M. Chamberlain, when interviewed this week by The Kernel.

The number of requests for University information from prospective women students has been about the same as in pre-war days, Chamberlain said.

The Dean estimated that enrollment of women students would reach approximately 1,100, and that of men students between 200 and 250.

Enrollment for the fall, including soldiers stationed on the campus, will probably not exceed 2,500, Chamberlain said. This will be a drop from a normal peacetime enrollment of about 3,800.

Phoenix Soldiers' Final Graduation Set September 18

With the final graduation exercises of the 1525th Service Unit Engineers' school on Sept. 18, the University will conclude its training of soldiers stationed at the Phoenix hotel. At this time, the hotel will be reverted to civilian trade.

Approximately 150 to 160 soldiers are being graduated every two weeks from the specialists' courses, and in this way the campus will be gradually emptied of 1525th Service Unit personnel. At the present, there are 500 men still attending classes here.

The army has already moved out of the two top floors of the Phoenix, which is now being redecorated for civilian use.

Dr. Ernest Trimble Appointed Examiner

Dr. Ernest G. Trimble, associate professor of political science at the University, has been appointed as hearings examiner for the President's committee of Fair Employment Practices, it was announced recently by Francis J. Haas, chairman of the committee.

Dr. Trimble has been on leave since May 11, 1942, when he was appointed field representative for the committee. Since then he has been stationed at Alexandria, Va., and Cincinnati, but has been sent all over the country by the committee and has conducted a number of hearings.

Folks in Uniform

"This one's for waking light sleepers."

Ad Libbing

By Tevis and Fleishman

Three of the ASTRP boys seem happy about the whole thing. They're Lexingtonians, all of whom graduated from Henry Clay high school back in June. Now they're going to school in their own home town with the Army providing them with practically everything. All of them, Lyle Lowry, Paul Latimer and John Morris, like the Army's idea.

Incidentally, now we know just what we must have looked like to upperclassmen back in September of 1942. Those new 17-year-olds have as bewildered a gaze as any group of green freshmen we have yet seen.

We trust that the entire nation has been adequately taught sugar-footing and all other manners of dancing peculiar (and that's just what we mean) to Kentucky. We hear that Howard Hall is teaching a second session of his dancing school. Yankees—here's your chance.

We have heard various derogatory comments from asinine little creatures who spend their afternoons lolling about the local pools that The Kernel is odiferous (this being a mild synonym for their actual words). We hereby issue a formal invitation to all would-be journalistic geniuses with their holier-than-thou airs to join us in sweltering in the McVey hall sub-basement news room dungeon next week. Stretcher bearers will be provided.

When we were little ones and our mothers named us Betty, we are sure that they had no idea of the future embarrassment that it would cause us. Today on the campus the soldiers have a habit of endowing a strange girl with the first and most common name that they can think of, usually Betty. Thus when a soldier says "Hello, Betty," we are in doubt as to whether we know him but have forgotten his face or whether we don't know him and he is just speaking. If we answer, the latter is always true, and the dear boy goes merrily on his way thinking that we have been flirting with him. For this reason we have applied down at the City Hall for legal permission to change our name to Agememnon.

We are beginning to wonder where in this town are the murder rates most predominate. Our candid opinion is that most deaths occur in restaurants in Lexington. We know of several persons who are threatening suicide because of the various places they have to eat their meals. Isn't that important to someone???

It Says Here...

By Whodunnit?

Hail, and a cheery good mornin' to all you lads and lassies, the pride of Kentucky . . . be ye our handsome men who fit neatly into Martha McCauley's, Kappa by the way, description of the "guys in the pea-green suits" or be ye the winsome (?) coeds who have long made UK famous . . . well, here 'tis, what there is of it . . . beggin' we are now for some gossip. . . .

Let's take a look at Doris Singleton, big Kernel reporter, and KD pals Lib Deal and June Hubbard who are really showing the soldiers around the town . . . havin' fun, gals? . . . isn't it wonderful havin' the 'guys around? . . . you all have really been visitin' Rose street and the Cottage lately, too, haven't ya? . . . and paradin' up and down Main street holdin' soldiers' arms . . . my, my, how do they ever get a chance to even salute?

Well, now, what's this we hear about you, Carolyn Rule? . . . Carolyn, who incidentally is a Tri-Delt transfer from Transy, said a fond farewell to lover Smitty yesterday . . . yep, and just when dear ole' Tony Pastor was in town . . . well now, weren't you disappointed?

The good ole' Sigma Nu house is housing a bunch of charmin' women now who have dared to ascend the creaky stairs and toss dainty bits of clothing around . . . amongst the cuties is one Betty Jackson, a little brunette from up Lebanon way . . . and livin' right across the hall is Kappa Laura Oldham . . . right here in the midst of all this sorority rushin', too . . . things are lookin' up for the Kappas, looks like some pretty good maneuverin' . . . uh-huh . . .

For all of you who know this couple, read it and cheer . . . hear tell Jeanne Valleau and Horace Gaines done went and did a awful thing . . . they done went and got married . . . now ain't that somethin'?

One familiar face now seen frequently in the Cottage is Adeline Wallace, one of the Jewell hall residents . . . and in the company of lieutenants, too . . . congratulations, Adeline . . . you wouldn't be satisfied with a buck private, would you? . . . my goodness, sounds like we been down to the Cottage a lot lately, too . . . sounds bad, mighty bad.

That's all there is . . . if somebody would only do something once in a while! . . . don'tcha' want', huh? . . . see you next week, it says here.

The Dates We Never Had; Or, The Date Bureau Story

Inspired by a Sherlock Holmes opus at the local cinema last week, we stuffed a pilfered pipe into our mouth to get into character and began an investigation of the very elusive organization known as the Campus Date Bureau.

With much fan-fare and many printed words the Date Bureau opened for business in June, hailed with sighs of delight and anticipation by the feminine element, and an awakening of the gleam in the eye of the fatigued, clad and looking, Lonely Hearts group of the ASTP.

Selecting Mary Jane Gallaher, chairman of this organization of good intentions and little action, as our betrayer in the matter of the tall good-looking hunk of man on our arm who never materialized, we cornered the aforesaid and learned to wit:

A committee of Lord-High Date Getters, composed of representatives of both the daters and the datees, was organized to arrange the details. Miss Gallaher reports a reorganization of the high command because several of the girls have left school permanently and one of the men has been transferred to another section of the ASTP.

The invisibility of Date Bureau activity during August was blamed by Miss Gallaher on the fact that a furlough respite was granted to ASTP-ers and that the military companies on campus are being reorganized with the beginning of the new quarter.

Miss Gallaher reported that a high in Date Bureau efficiency would be reached in September when dates would be arranged for all Fall quarter affairs.

... And Percival Does Also

Dear Mater and Pater:

Although I am not feeling in an exceptionally factual mood, I shall attempt to relate an epistolary chronology of my most recent activities. To be explicit, I have been doing little in the world of cultural interest, and have been passing my days in the company of my intrepid and infinitely interesting friend, Johnny. Every night of the past week we have been playing an intriguingly enthralling game entitled "galloping dominoes." Johnny has been acting as instructor for I am as yet lacking in complete familiarity with the whole science of the sport, but he has nobly refused any monetary remuneration for his kindness other than the trivial amounts conceded to him by the laws of chance. And while on the topic of lucre, may I remind you that my quarterly allowance is due and I have several small debts of honor to be reimbursed ere the waning of this five weeks. Among my gamester companions are several chaps of the most facetious natures and my room often rings till the wee hours of the morning with their jocular laughter as we indulge in "stud" or "draw," two highly entertaining games played with cards. As yet I make many faux pas, such as holding facial illustrations on them, which may be beaten by the holder of two cards with numerals on them, but as my criterions inform me, this is only beginners luck and I need not worry about its continuing.

My companions are calling me now and I must end this commentary, which I fear lacks my usual intellectual zest, so au revoir until I again feel more eurдите.

Your Devoted Progeny,
 PERCIVAL

P.S. Do not forget my pressing need for legal tender.

Former YMCA President Saved After Plane Crash

By Bill Spragens

The story behind the story of the rescue of Second Lieut. William H. Karraker, navigator on the Flying Fortress "Memphis Blues" and a former UK student, from the English channel on July 14 after his bomber crashed, was related to The Kernel this week by his mother, Mrs. P. E. Karraker, Lexington.

Karraker is the son of P. E. Karraker, professor of soils at the University.

Lieut. Karraker, before his induction into the Army, was a commerce student at the University, and was a senior when he left the campus. He is a former president of the YMCA and for two years conducted the Safety Driving Campaign. Karraker is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. He belonged to Lamp and Cross and Lances and was quite active in school affairs.

The "Memphis Blues," the bomber on which Karraker was navigator, crashed into the English channel on July 14 after a bombing raid over the Paris area. The crew of the plane immediately took to rubber life rafts, and was rescued about an hour and a half later by members of the British sea-air rescue unit.

Mrs. Karraker stated that she had heard from her son several times since his rescue, and that despite the military censorship, he had revealed some very interesting facts in his letters. One of his letters, she said, told of a chance meeting in Nottingham of the sister of a pilot who flew a Spitfire which was part of the fighter escort of the "Memphis Blues." This escort saved the lives of the nine crew members by keeping off German fighters which were threatening the Fortress. Later Karraker met the pilot in person, she said. Among the pictures which Karraker has sent home is one of a town which was bombed by his plane.

Karraker was inducted into the Army in January 1942, and received his commission on January 16, 1943. He was originally sent to Selman Field at Monroe, Louisiana. From there, he was successively stationed at Salt Lake City, Utah; Blythe, California; Tyote, Texas; Caspar, Wyoming, and Salinas, Kansas. From the latter station he was sent overseas, embarking from Bangor, Maine.
