Seniors, Grads Must Apply For All Degrees Today

All seniors who expect to complete their requirements for graduation at the close of the Summer quarter and who have not made application for degrees, are requested to do so today in Room 16 of the Administration building.

This applies also to Graduate students who expect to complete their requirements for graduate degrees, according to an announcement from the registrar.

Phoenix Men Set To Leave

No More Engineers
Here After 13 Weeks

It was stated by Dr. Donovan that approximately 50 engineers, employed temporarily as instructors of the Army men will be released as the personnel of the Service

Soldiers of the 1525th Service Unit of the Army Engineer Corps, who have been receiving instruction at the University, will be withdrawn according to a notification received by President Herman L. Donovan.

The soldiers, who have been on the campus since September 19, and have been stationed at the Phoenix hotel, will end their work here in about 13 weeks, the last 160 men arriving here on June 26, with no more replacements coming in after this date.

Unit decreases. He said that the technically trained instructors had been hired with the understanding that they would be released from duty when no longer needed.

To date, slightly more than 1,600 men sent here have received certificates of completion of instruction.

QUESTION: Are you anxiously awaiting the advent of the dating bureau?

Pvt. Moco Knpinski, Kinkhead hall: Sure, this system will eliminate the use of ice packs on Monday mornings.

Pvt. Ted Sloane, Breckinridge hall: Very much so.

Bernice Salutsky, Commerce, Graduate: I'm dumbfounded.

Corp. Kurt F. Mende, Patterson hall: Just dying for it.

Pfc. John Murray, Patterson hall: Yo, yo, yo, and a bottle of rum.

Francis Board, A&S, Sophomore: I don't have any opinion on the matter.

Pvt. James Costelloe, Breckinridge hall: Can't wait.

Elizabeth Shaikum, Commerce, senior: Just waiting for it to open up.

Pfc. Colin Dunbar, Patterson hall: Certainly, it will relieve the monotony and give us soldiers an opportunity to meet the coeds.

Ann Ricketts, A&S, senior: No, the soldiers seem to be getting along pretty well without it.

Pvt. Joseph Lukein, Breckinridge hall: Politics of desperation.

'Prepare For Rehabilitation' Gregor Ziemer Tells Students

Speaker Stresses
Duty To Get Ready
For Mental Changes

That it is the duty of present students of colleges and universities of the United States to prepare themselves for mental rehabilitation when this war is over, was stressed by Gregor Ziemer, WLW radio commentator, speaking yesterday before an audience which filled Memorial hall.

"If this coming generation doesn't do a better job than the last one, heaven help the country," he continued. He emphasized that the Americans are just entering this war. Up until now it has been a side show, but now it has turned into a three-ring circus. "Can we take it?" Ziemer asked.

Living in Germany for 11 years, Ziemer has had opportunities to see the inside story of Nazism. Hitler, for more than 10 years, has been educating the future generation for war. Hitlerism and Nazism will not die with Hitler, for it has been forced into the brains of children from the age of six. Germany is fighting with a generation of crusaders which they have reared, Ziemer pointed out.

Hitler believes that even though we may win this international war, we will have to fight a revolution in our own country. At the present, we are making the fight harder for ourselves with strikes, labor problems, and racial problems. We must not become impatient, he declared. "We will come out either a wonderful nation, or a third-rate one because we have lost faith in ourselves. This is not an ordinary war. It is a crusade," he continued.

"We should begin to realize and appreciate our blessings, and make up our minds to keep them," he went on. "We let this happen to us because we underestimated our enemies, but we will not let this happen again." He stated that the youth of America who are fortunate enough to be attending colleges and universities should realize their responsibilities. He declared that "we have to win the war physically first, then mentally. This is the greatest challenge ever. It is up to us."

To Vote Or Not?

Students Favor Vote For 18-Year-Olds

By Doris Singleton

If 18-year-old men are old enough to fight for their country, they are old enough to vote, is the opinion expressed by University students in a poll taken this week by The Kernel.

A man in the armed forces is fighting for his country, so he should have some voice in the doctrines of the country he is defending, claim the majority of the men and women queried. He is old enough to sacrifice his life for his nation, so he should be deemed old enough to vote. At 18, a man is usually mature enough to choose his country's leaders. Those sentiments were echoed by many in the grill and the Campus book store.

General Here To Study Unit

Dalton To Inspect
Army Dormitories

Gen. Joseph N. Dalton, assistant chief of staff of the United States Army in charge of personnel, is to arrive here this morning to inspect the 1548th Service Unit quartered on the campus and to observe the Army specialized training program.

General Dalton will be accompanied by Col. James H. Graham, dean of the engineering college.

Patterson, Breckinridge, Bradley, and Kinkead halls, which house the 1548th unit, will be inspected by General Dalton, according to an announcement by President Herman L. Donovan.

An address by General Dalton will be heard by members of the unit at 11 a. m. today in Memorial hall.

The officer will be guest of honor at a luncheon to be given at Maxwell place by Dr. Donovan at 12:30 o'clock. Other guests at the luncheon will include members of the executive committee of the University board of trustees, who will meet this morning in the president's office.

Women Needed For Dance Class

Twenty women are needed to act as partners in Howard Hall's dancing class which is conducted to teach soldiers dancing, according to Miss Dorothy Collins, Union social director.

Approximately 85 men have enrolled in the class which meets at 6:45 on Wednesday nights in the Union ball room, Miss Collins said.

Resignation Submitted

Lawrence Yates, assistant professor of English, has submitted his resignation from the University staff to the Board of Trustees.

Mr. Yates was recently convicted in federal court on a charge of possessing 300 pounds of undeclared sugar.

Guignol Will Present "Young April" In July

One of the few all-student casts in Guignol's history will present the first production of the summer season, "Young April," at the little theater on Euclid avenue on the nights of Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, July 12, 13, and 14.

1,065 Registered For Summer Term

Registration figures for the first session of the summer quarter stood at 1,065 Monday at the close of registration.

Women students outnumber the men approximately two to one, with a registration of 690 women and 375 men. The total enrollment for the first session last summer was 1,827.

Newspaper Men May Be Trained At University

The University department of journalism is cooperating with the American Newspapers and Publishers Association in building a replacement pool of newspaper workers to fill 6,000 vacancies on publications, according to Dr. Niel Plummer, head of the department.

Names of one hundred applicants for specialized training in newspaper work have been received by the department this week, and information concerning the University has been sent to all.

No revision of the present journalism classes is planned for special students, Dr. Plummer said. Each student's schedule will be planned to meet his prospects for newspaper employment, it was explained.

First Dates Set For "House Party"

The campus Date Bureau will officially get under way with a "House Party" from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Saturday in the Union building. The program will consist of dancing, ping pong, and bridge.

All soldiers who desire dates must apply at the Date Bureau in the Union before Friday. After being assigned an escort for the occasion, the girls will be introduced to their date at the dance. Refreshments will be served.

Mary Jane Gallaher, assisted by Jane Denny, Carolyn Spicer, Hazel Weakley, Claudine Mullinaux, Martha Ann Russell, Betty Tevis, Robert Rich, Co. C, Joseph M. Robertson, Co. E, Ed D. Yewill, Co. A, Bruce Fay Irvine, Co. B, and Dick F. Faulkner, Co. B, is the chairman in charge of arrangements.

"Young April" is a comedy of impulsive youth, written by Aurania and William Spence Rouverol and is a sequel to "Growing Pains" presented by Guignol last summer. The story is based on the adventures of the McIntyre family and newcomers to Guignol will find it equally as entertaining as "Growing Pains."

Besides being an all-student cast, the set is being done by the class in stage production under the direction of Clarence Geiger. The play will be produced both with music and dancing sequences.

The entire production will be under the direction of Frank Fowler.

The cast is as follows: Mrs. McIntyre, Mabel Hill; Lula, Margaret Smith; Vivian, Annie Laurie Riley; Elsie, Mary Mulligan; Terry, Beth Caddy; Mrs. Miller, Merry Crouch; Jane, Micki Bogan; Polly, Anne Lytle; Charlotte, Mary Herman; Frances, Dixie Keach; Diane, Adaline Stern; Kitty, Jean Mills; Anne, Norma Niswonger; Professor McIntyre, James Neill; George, J. C. Doyle; Brian, Joe Gannon; Bert, John Sutterfield; and Dutch, John Renfro.

Assistant Director in charge of production is Seba Sloane. Prompter will be Carola Spurr, and sound effects will be handled by Marion Tucker.

Column On Soldiers Added To Kernel

The first of a series of columns on the campus soldiery will be found on page two of today's issue. If any of you other men are interested in writing for The Kernel we invite contributions.

Women Hostesses For Union Dance

University women will give a dance for all service men from 8:30 to 11:30 Saturday evening in the Bluegrass room of the Union building.

This affair will be the last University dance scheduled to which all enlisted men are invited. Unless present plans are modified, future Saturday night dances will be only for students, including the cadets registered at the University and training on the campus.

Girls will be admitted this Saturday upon the presentation of Union membership cards, new Bluegrass Service Club-USO cards, or YWCA courtesy cards.

Ad Libbing

By Fleishman and Tevis

Having in our blood a mixture of Daniel Boone and Carrie Nation, we are launching today one of the greatest crusades of all times. As a reward for this undertaking, we fully expect to go down in history side by side with Nathan Hale, Henry Clay, Horace Greeley, and other such notables. We are aiding mankind by raising our flag against movies such as "Coney Island" which appeared recently at the Kentucky theater. We are willing to concede the beauty of technicolor, scenery, and Betty Grable, but we cannot forgive the lack of a plot. We feel that our protestation is indeed a contribution to the social intellect of the American people. We think that we are martyrs and can already see the halos shining above our heads.

 We are very surprised at the usually alert English department. Not one word has been said about the Union juke box blaring forth the ungrammatical ditties, "Please Give Me Something to Remember You By" and "You'd Be So Nice To Come Home To." Suspended preposition. Egad!

 A former columnist in the Kernel made the following rash statement: Quote, The co-eds at the University are goons, unquote.

Perhaps this refutation applies more to the town than to the school but the late O. O. McIntyre, who was one of America's foremost journalists and who should have been an authority on the subject, said, "I have seen more beautiful girls while standing on the corner of Main and Limestone streets in Lexington, Kentucky, than I have ever seen in one place in my life."

 In view of Christmas being a short one hundred and eighty-three days away, we think that the following poem is appropriate:

Under the hanging mistletoe
 The ugly maiden stood
 And stood and stood and stood
 And stood and stood and stood.

 Campus Comment: The credit for the cleverest of the usual pre-examination quips goes to Virginia Baskett, a mere sophomore. Said Virginia, "I'm going now to take my history exam. Dupre for me."

 Was it pure innocence or subtle sarcasm beneath the words of the little girl on the front row in our economics class. Said she one day last week to the professor, "Are Betty Grable's legs wealth or capital?"

"I'm appealing his case to the draft board."

Khaki and Dull Brass

By BABY

Need any help with your date bureau, Sgt. Rich? Who has the last say about the eligibility of the gals?

To T/5 Rone, who is looking for a room mate to help clean up his clubroom. Is any room mate acceptable?

Better think twice before you whistle at the blondes walking their paths on the campus. One of them is someone's wife—and he is getting kinda hepped up about it. N'est-ce pas, Horace?

Did someone say, "Let's get the racing formula before payday?"

Is it true that one of my too many room mates plans on marriage for the approaching, yet seemingly intangible, furlough? Why is it that so many of the soldiers here are either married or planning on marriage?

Couldn't be that the ladies of the University make one's thoughts turn to home?

What have you got to say about that, Pete?

Now that the soldiers in the advanced course have broken the ice and everyone possesses at least one stripe, local cleaners will be paid promptly provided we get our loundry back on time.

Why do all the soldiers take off for Richmond on the weekend? Let the WAACs come up here.

Whenever you tell your buddy "T. S." he will reply "No, I need a T/5."

We extend our deepest condolence to our physics instructor, Prof. Koppius. Poor him has to come in every Saturday for four periods whereas he previously had a vacation on this day.

I guess we all have to take it on the chin.

A snappy salute and best wishes from class 4A-4 to Mr. Eaves of the math department. He is leaving for a commission in the armed forces.

Many a student feels that he, ever on the ball, was the best math teacher he ever had. Mr. Eaves seems to have a knack of explaining things.

How are Harrington and Hoffman getting along on these dark nights?

Is it possible to see Malick and McLean on the campus on Saturday nights? Or are these privates too busy?

Is Porter just lazy or won't his wolfing tactics work on the studious gals who decided to "study" over the summer?

Aside to Chuck Wells: "How about giving me a break with that blonde 'sunshine' of yours?"

When will a certain establishment on South Limestone resort to rationing the number of soldiers who can drink there at one time? And where do we apply for the coupons?

Finally — many thanks, Colonel Brewer!!

US's UKs

By Robert Kibler

Lieut. Earl E. Rigsby, Louisville, who attended the University in 1938, was recently graduated from Foster Field, Texas.

Jay Young, Jr., Catlettsburg, has arrived at Big Spring, Texas, for training as a bombardier cadet. At the time of enlisting Young was a student at the University and a member of Alpha Gamma Rho.

Second Lieut. Philip E. Blumer, Lexington, has reported to the Carlsbad Army Air Field where he will study navigation. Lieut. Blumer was awarded his bombardier wings at the Midland, Texas, Bombardier School. He was formerly a student at the University.

Date Bureau Blanks Foretell Return Of Old Spirit To UK

By Mary Jane Gallaher

Gals, you'd better drag out those pumps, fancy hair-dos, and glad-rags, 'cause UK is returnin' to the "joe" and "rah-rah" spirit of old. From the answers received on the Date Bureau forms, one can readily see that the wild college life which we bid a tearful farewell to when our civilian men left is coming back—but bigger and better.

"Shootin' craps and drinkin' Scotch!" This was the answer given by one khaki-clad member of the armed forces in answer to the query, "What hobbies and sports do you like best?" on the questionnaire filled out for the UK Date Bureau. Swimming and tennis were the most general sports, with dancing ("learning," and "if Mr. Hall is successful!" were comments when asked if they tripped the light fantastic) running a close second.

Bridge was indulged in by many, particularly the fraternity members. You gals who are bridge fiends, gather 'round, the boys need a fourth. Very high-ranking places went to shootin' pool, (which of you ladies swings a wicked cue-stick? — don't be bashful), poker, drinking, drinking, drinking, and last but not least, the favorite of campus parties, postoffice. (Well, it may not have been in exactly that form, but . . .) It seems that all but the securely married males (of which there were few) signed up for this new and painless process of meeting gorgeous Kentucky damsels. Some explained on their applications that this seemed much easier to them than the "whistle" or "haven't we met somewhere before?" method.

Practically all the states in the union have their representatives among us and the educational institutions named in the "former college" blanks started at the West Coast and ended up in New England with several ex-Harvard and Yale men.

For you females who prefer the smooth line of the Greek lodge gentlemen, we've got fraternity men of every type and description. Only they're minus their slick convertibles and long coats. However, they can still steer you to the back of the Cottage with a willing hand. There are pins that are familiar to our own campus, and practically any other combination of the Greek alphabet that you prefer.

Rally 'round, girls, and display some of that famous Kentucky charm and hospitality. Also the fellows will, from their remarks on their application blanks, stand up for Marse Robert and the Southern Confederacy if you teach them to sling a mean mint julep.

More Time Out Saturday Is Plea Of Dorm Residents

Dear Editor,

It is through you that we, the girls of the Women's halls, hope to reach the governing body of the dormitories. The rules laid down by the aforementioned state that the girls must return by 12 o'clock on Saturday nights during the summer term.

We feel that this is unfair, for during the regular session of school the time is extended until 12:30 p.m. During the fall, winter, and spring quarters, the girls must be in earlier during week nights, whereas we are allowed an 11 p.m. permission every night. The feeling is, among those who have discussed the subject, that the girls would be willing to forfeit 11 p.m. permissions several nights throughout the week in order to gain a 12:30 permission on Saturday nights. Doesn't that sound quite logical?

Now that so many of the girls are dating soldiers, who are allowed out only on Saturday nights, we feel it quite unfair to have only a 12 o'clock permission when at all other times it has been later.

We do hope that some remedy can be found for this situation.

Two Dorm Residents.

From The Type . . .

What we do, shows what we are; what we say, what we would be.

21 Athletes Given Letters

Bernie Shively, athletic director, announced this week that athletic awards in spring sports have been granted to 21 University students.

Thirteen letters go to baseball players, the other eight being given to members of the tennis team. The baseball nine was coached by Shively, and Dr. H. H. Downing was in charge of the netters.

Baseball lettermen follow: Frank A. Bauer, Phil Cutchin, Gus Green, Bob Herbert, V. T. Jones, Noah Mullin, Clyde Parker, R. J. Ray, James Stevenson, Milt Ticco, Captain G. J. Wright, Wilbur Schu, and Milton Kafoglis, senior manager.

Tennis awards were made to Omar Ratliff, Marshall Smith, Jack Hicks, Jack Scharstein, William G. Campbell, Roy Cunningham, Sam Allen, and Sam Berman.

Only the countries which can learn to serve will be worthy to survive.

Fate Of Football In SEC To Be Decided At Atlanta

Shively, Funkhouser Are To Represent University At Meet

By Raymond Witham

The fate of football in the Southeastern Conference will be decided at a meeting of school representatives Saturday, June 26, at Atlanta, Georgia.

Bernie Shively, athletic director, and Dr. W. D. Funkhouser, secretary of the conference, will represent the University at the meeting.

So far only four teams have decided to discontinue football for the duration, due to lack of manpower. They are Florida, Mississippi State, Mississippi, and Vanderbilt.

When interviewed Coach Shively stated that Kentucky would have a football team this fall. The team will be composed mainly of freshmen because only one member, Wilbur Schu, has returned from last year's squad.

High on the Atlanta agenda will be the question of the advisability of using Navy cadets on the collegiate teams; the problem of transportation; whether the Army will allow its students on the campus to take part; and whether the Commissioner's office will be discontinued.

If Navy cadets can be used they will be of help only to two schools—Georgia and Tulane—which are the only schools having Navy units, Shively said.

Shively stated that the Army would probably have their own teams and play games with other service teams.

In regard to the Commissioner's office, Shively said that it would probably be disbanded for the duration due to lack of funds from gate receipts if any more teams drop out of the loop.

Craftsmen Subject In Invitation Series

Miss Anne Worthington Callihan, assistant professor of art at the University, will speak on "Early Kentucky Craftsmen," Wednesday, June 30, in the library's browsing room, in the second of the "Invitation to Reading" series. The series is under sponsorship of the University library staff.

On Tuesday, July 6, Miss Grace Snodgrass, Experiment Station librarian, will speak on "Mediterranean Background."

Noyes, Griffin Are Transferred

Two men from the staff of the military department at the University have been ordered to new posts.

Lieut. Col. Marshall J. Noyes, assistant professor of military science on the University staff since March 5, has been named commandant of the 1557th medical unit at the University of Louisville. Before coming to the University, Colonel Noyes was stationed at the Rose Polytechnic Institute, Terre Haute, Indiana.

Another member of the staff, Major Gerald Griffin, former instructor in journalism at the University and at present post adjutant, has been ordered to report to the Command and General Staff school, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Major Griffin, a Lexington resident, is a graduate of the University and has been senior instructor of the Advanced ROTC.

A shudder of fear is the symptom of weak faith on the verge of collapse.

YM-YWCA To Hold Joint Meeting

A joint meeting of the YM-YWCA will be held from 6:30 to 7:15 p.m., Tuesday, in the Y lounge of the Union building.

A report on the Student Training conference held at Berea recently was given by Carolyn Spicer, president of the YW, and Norman Christman, president of the YM, at the last meeting.

Miss Kate Irvine Added To Staff

Miss Kate Tipton Irvine, former Lafayette High school librarian, has resigned to accept a position as assistant reference librarian in the University library. Miss Irvine succeeds Miss Jacqueline Bull, who was recently awarded a Rockefeller fellowship for study in southern history.

Miss Irvine received her A.B. degree in English and her library science degree at the University. She is a former member of the county school staff and has served as librarian at Picadome, Bryan Station, and Campbellsville schools.

COLONEL Of The Week

Alice Watkins

This week's "Colonel of the Week" goes to Alice Watkins, Arts and Sciences senior, from London, Kentucky.

Alice is managing editor of the Kentucky Kernel; president of Chi Delta Phi, literary honorary; and president of Phi Alpha Theta, history honorary.

She is also publicity chairman of Delta Delta Delta, social sorority, a member of the Student Government Association, and a member of the Kentuckian staff.

Sound Track Being Made

Sutherland Acts As Movie Voice

The sound track of "The University in War and Peace," a two-reel, color film, is being recorded this week in the radio studio. The film will be ready for release early in July when it will be shown to University students and in theaters throughout Kentucky.

E. G. Sulzer, director of University publicity, directed the film, which was photographed by Charles T. Chapman, Evanston, Ill. With the aid of Dr. Niel Plummer, chairman of a ten-man committee in charge of the movie, Chapman took approximately 1,600 feet of film, which has been edited to 800 feet. W. R. Sutherland, assistant professor of English, is acting as narrator, and Sulzer is directing the music.

Chapman, who shot the film of campus life and activities during war time, photographed every phase of University life in collecting material for the movie. Training of soldiers, research problems, and social activities were reenacted.

In spite of the decrease of enrollment at the University of Oregon, figures for the number of library reserve books checked out overnight are on the increase.

Profs Prove Versatility; Do Quick Change In Class

Because of inroads made among students and faculty at the University by Selective Service and enlistments, journalism and botany professors can be found teaching mathematics, anatomy and physiology profs instructing physics, and so on.

While several departments have had increased demands placed on their staffs because of the ASTP program being carried on at the University, others are operating with reduced personnel in order to hold jobs for the instructors in the service.

Examples of the crossing of departmental lines by many University faculty members are: Prof. V. R. Portmann, of the journalism department; Dr. C. C. Ross, of the College of Education; Dr. H. F. Riley, head of the Department of Botany; Dr. T. T. Jones, dean of men and head of the department of ancient languages; Dr. E. Z. Palmer, professor of economics, and Prof. Blaine H. Schick, of the department of romance languages, who are instructing soldier-trainees in mathematics.

Dr. R. S. Allen, head of the department of anatomy and physiology, and E. B. Brown, instructor in the same department, are teaching physics, as is Dr. C. E. Snow, assistant professor of anthropology and archaeology.

Dr. E. M. Ligon, head of the department of secondary education and director of the University's placement bureau, is teaching the soldiers geography, while A. D. "Ab" Kirwan, head football coach, is instructing them in history.

B. A. Shively, director of athletics; Adolph Rupp, head basketball coach, and S. A. "Daddy" Boles, golf coach and graduate manager of athletics, are teaching physical education.

Teachers Study Economics Work

Five teacher's colleges were represented at the University this week by their president and a faculty member, who came for the purpose of studying the "Sloan experiment in applied economics," which has been in operation here since 1939, under the sponsorship of the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation.

This experiment is being directed by the College of Education in its workshop at McKee in Jackson County. It is under the supervision of Dr. Maurice F. Seay, of the Bureau of School service, and is for the purpose of teaching children in low-income groups the fundamentals of good diet, housing, and clothing.

These colleges have been granted fellowships by the Sloan foundation to send educators, commissioned by the American Association of Teacher's Colleges, to find out whether children can be taught to better their own living conditions.

The colleges represented were Central Michigan College of Education, Mt. Pleasant; Keene Teachers College, N. H.; North Texas State Teachers College, California, Pa.; and State Teachers College, Radford, Va.

More Land Bought For Field House Site

The University's proposed field house took one more step toward realization with the purchase of another tract of property on Euclid avenue this week.

The purchase of the site was made by the Commonwealth of Kentucky from Jane Gorham Platt, Thomas Carr Platt, Dorothy Gorham Kerr, and K. M. Kerr for $4,500.

Campus Sing Thursday

A campus sing is scheduled for 6:45 to 7:15, Thursday night in the Amphitheater of Memorial hall.

Sponsored by Suky and the Student Union board, the sing will be led by Miss Mildred Lewis.

ACHIEVEMENT CHAMPS—Proud winners of 4-H National Achievement Championships are Robert Nash, 19, of Ryan, Okla., and Margaret Hedderich, 18, of Camden, Ind. Awards were made at the 21st National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.
