The project of moving the large annex collection (which includes Acquisitions, Cataloging, Archives, GPD, Newspaper/Microtext materials, etc.) consumed about three weeks.

John Bryant will be in touch with all departments who have annex materials and will provide them with a map of the stack area on the third floor, King North.

ERIC

Tim Pasden of the Appalachian Education Satellite Project will give a presentation on the use of the ERIC data base and its quarterly updates in the Old Rare Book Room, Monday, July 15, at 9:00 a.m.

The Appalachian Education Satellite Project, funded through the Appalachian Regional Commission by the National Institute of Education for a duration of 2 1/2 years, is an experimental program designed to improve and expand the delivery of training programs in elementary reading and career education to Appalachian educators.

All interested staff are urged to attend the presentation. It is suggested that each department and branch library (as well as Medical Center, Law and Agriculture) be represented. The ERIC data base has numerous multidisciplinary applications which should be utilized.

LISTENING CENTER

The Music Listening Center, formerly under the jurisdiction of the School of Music, is now being administered by the Music Library. The Listening Center has a collection of around 5,000 records and furnishes equipment for both listening and taping. Its primary services are to the School of Music faculty and students in providing facilities for required listening.

Catherine Oleksa operates the center, which is located on the second floor of the Fine Arts Building directly above the Music Library. Plans are being finalized to physically connect the center with the Music Library in the near future.
