

Mt. Sterling, Ky. Aug. 8th. 1881.

Brother Withers:-

Our next regular meeting takes place only a little more than a week before the opening of the Session.

Justice to all parties seems to require a longer notice than that to any one who is expected to conduct the Academy next session. The members of the Committee have already had a month to investigate, and I should think a very few days more would enable them to form a satisfactory opinion as to their duty. I suggest therefore that you call a meeting within a week fixing as early a day as your judgment can approve.

If we should conclude to accept the resignation that is before us, the successor of the present incumbent ought to have some
