

Tuesday —

Dear Mother:

I have had two applications this morning for rooms in the College of Arts' boarding house, — one from an excellent brother from Noy's Lick who is here with his son and who cannot expect to keep his son at a regular boarding house at the rate of  $4$  &  $4\frac{1}{2}$  dollars a week.

Something must be done. A couple of rooms ought at once be fixed up in the Boarding. The room-rent that would be immediately paid by students would very nearly pay for the cost of getting
