

Lexington, Kentucky.
June 6th, 1872.

Bro. Elley:-

At your request, I furnish you with a copy of my addendum to the proposition of the Peace Committee which is now before your Board of Elders for consideration.

It gives me pleasure to know that on seeing a copy of the addendum, this morning, in my class-room, it met with your hearty sanction. I am grateful in believing that it is in no wise calculated to complicate matters, or to jeopardize the true peace and reconciliation which I am sure we should all desire in Jesus Christ our Lord, whose will and whose Word should ever be our highest law in all we do. The recognition of this fundamental principle has ever been, you know, the life and strength of the Reformation. It should be acknowledged in every step we take in life.

Brother Bishop seems to have thought best not to