MEN'S STUDENT COUNCIL FORMED AT KY. IN 1922

Formed on Recommendation of University of Iowa

IS NOW POWERLESS

Committee Will Meet to Devise a Better Plan

At a meeting of the Men's Student Council of the University of Kentucky held Thursday, March 19, in Dean Boyd's office, it was decided that the Council would adjourn indefinitely, due to the fact that it "had no regulations deemed necessary for the fulfillment of its trust as representatives of the desires of the student body."

In 1921, the deans and advisors of several universities met at the University of Iowa and recommended to the universities and colleges who had representatives present that since all faculty government was not good for these institutions, nor was all student government, a cooperative plan would perhaps meet the needs. According to this recommendation the students of the University of Kentucky met in 1922 and the Men's Student Council was organized, adopting the present constitution, slightly amended.

The purpose of the Council, as stated in the preamble of the constitution is to "secure an effective form of student government in accordance with the authority granted by the Senate to the Student Council." The powers embodied those of the discipline of undergraduates, the social calendar of the university and the penalties for the violation of all rules.

After a thorough investigation, the members of the Council found that several students were not complying with the rule of wearing the freshman caps, and that they were "powerless to enforce the regulations prescribed by the students of the university." Their adjournment followed.

Since this action was taken, these men have met with Doctor McVey, Dean Melcher and Dean Turk to discuss the situation and it was decided that a committee from the Student Council meet with one from the faculty as soon as possible to devise some means of meeting the demand for a governing body.

REGISTRARS MEET HERE APRIL 1-10

Under Supervision of State Association of Registrars

The third annual Institute for Registrars will be held at the University of Kentucky from April 1-10. The work of this meeting will be so organized as to require four hours of recitation daily, which will include lectures and studies in methods of conducting the work in a registrar's office.

The first two days of the Institute will be in charge of the State Association of Registrars. This part of the program will be planned by J. R. Robertson, registrar of the Eastern State Normal School, Richmond. The program will be planned to meet the needs of those attending the Institute as well as those here only for the meeting of the State Association.

The third annual Institute will be conducted after the same plan as were the first and second. Two classes will be held in the morning and two in the afternoon. The morning session will be under the supervision of Ezra Gillis, registrar of the university, and will deal largely with the practical phases of the registrar's work. The afternoon sessions will be in charge of Dean Taylor of the college of Education, Professor Miner of the department of Psychology, and Professor Leland, of the department of Economics.

"BOILERMAKERS" START ANNUAL TOUR ON APRIL 2

Will Go to Pittsburgh, Buffalo and Niagara Falls

RETURN APRIL 10

Forty-Nine Senior Engineers Will Make Trip

The senior class of the college of Engineering of the university will leave for their twenty-sixth annual senior inspection tour on April 2. The class will go to Pittsburgh, Buffalo, and to Niagara Falls, and will return April 10.

The trip will be conducted by Dean F. Paul Anderson, and Professors W. E. Freeman, D. V. Terrell, J. B. Dickerson and L. S. O'Bannon, all of the college of Engineering.

While in Pittsburgh the class will visit the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, the Bureau of Engineering.

STROLLERS ARE BOOKED TO PLAY AT LOUISVILLE

Educators at K. E. A. Will See Amateurs Perform

ALUMNI SPONSORS

Western Trip New Venture for Dramatic Organization

"Fifty-Fifty," the spring production of the Stroller dramatic organization, will be presented in Louisville April 24, under the auspices of the Louisville Alumni Club.

This date was agreed upon at a meeting of the Entertainment Committee of the club, at which James Darnell, president of the Strollers, was present. The Louisville Alumni Club sponsors the entertainment for the annual meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association held in Louisville each spring, and the Strollers are well pleased with the idea that the Louisville alumni are behind this presentation, and also that they will have an opportunity to present their play before the educators of the state.

April 11 the Strollers are booked to play in Pineville, and on Monday and Tuesday, April 13 and 14, they will present "Fifty-Fifty" to Harlan and Lynch.

Although the western Kentucky trip is a new adventure for the Stroller organization, the letters received from their backers in western Kentucky give promise of a very enthusiastic reception there. Mr. Darnell left with the Glee Club for western Kentucky to close the contracts for appearance in Pineville, where he is now located. Preston Cherry, another university alumnus and also a Stroller, is making arrangements for the presentation of "Fifty-Fifty" in Bowling Green.

Herdon Evans, an old Stroller, and a former director of the organization, has taken over the management of the presentation in Pineville, where he is now located. Preston Cherry, another university alumnus and also a Stroller, is making arrangements for the presentation of "Fifty-Fifty" in Bowling Green.

MOTHERS TO BE GUESTS MAY 2-3

Elaborate Plans Being Made for the Occasion

Mothers of all University of Kentucky women students will be guests of honor at special celebrations planned in their honor Saturday, May 2 and 3, to commemorate Mothers Day. Elaborate plans are being made to entertain the visitors.

Saturday afternoon the guests will be taken to points of interest on the campus and to a tea in their honor at the home of President and Mrs. McVey at Maxwell Place. At this time they will be addressed by Dr. McVey. Saturday night they will be entertained at the various sorority houses and residence halls on the campus. Sunday afternoon musical vesper services will be held at the Maxwell Presbyterian church under the direction of Professor Lampert. Dean Sarah Blanding is furthering the project and her tireless efforts toward the success of the plan are certain to put the movement over.

WAMBAUGH TELLS OF "6 YEARS AFTER"

Discusses Restoration Difficulties in Europe

Miss Sarah Wambaugh, who was a member of the Secretariat of the League of Nations, took "Six Years After" as the subject of her lecture Friday afternoon, March 20, at Patterson Hall.

In discussing the restoration of territory taken from Poland a few decades ago, and at present inhabited by the Germans, Miss Wambaugh pointed out the difficulties of dealing with the minority. In such matters as these and other re-adjustments of frontiers, the lecturer stated that plebiscides had been resorted to.

Miss Wambaugh's work was in the minority field, as she has written a book on the subject of "plebiscides."

"MESSIAH" TO BE GIVEN APRIL 30

Monday Evening Rehearsals Show Rapid Progress

Handel's "Messiah," Lexington's contribution to the National Music Week, will be presented by a large chorus and symphony orchestra on the evening of April 30 in the basketball auditorium of the university.

The concert, sponsored by Phi Mu Alpha, musical fraternity of the university, is designed to promote musical development in Central Kentucky and is the first organized effort of its kind to bring together the community in an undertaking of this character.

The chorus, which has been in rehearsal for several weeks, numbers more than 200 trained voices, representing the best musical talent from Central Kentucky. Georgetown, Paris, Winchester, and Berea are contributing large units to the chorus.

Supporting the presentation will be a symphony orchestra of more than forty pieces, with the Philharmonic Society of the university as a nucleus. Lexington and Berea musicians will augment the orchestra and arrangements are being made to procure musicians from the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra. Four soloists who have had wide experience in oratorio work in Chicago and New York has been engaged to take the leads.

Wednesday night, April 29, will be "College Night," also sponsored by Phi Mu Alpha, and on this night the various university musical organizations and clubs will give a "song fest." This will truly be the students' night, when they may have fun to their hearts' content. The authorities wish especially to urge, however, that at the rendition of "The Messiah" on the following night that students and others make as little noise as possible, in keeping with the wonderful story of "The Messiah."

Announcements as to tickets will be made in the near future.

TOURNEY MEETS APRIL 29-MAY 2

Includes Forensics, Music, Journalism, and Track

The tenth annual Kentucky Inter-Scholastic League tournament in debate, oratory, declamation, track, journalism, music and essay contests will be held at the University of Kentucky April 29 and 30 and May 1 and 2.

Preliminaries will be held the last two days in April and finals in all but the track meet will be held May 1. Preliminaries and finals in track will be held Saturday, May 2. District tournaments have been in progress throughout the state this month and will be concluded before April 22.

Professor L. L. Dantzer, head of the department of English, and Miss Cella Taylor, acting head of the department of University Extension, will be in charge of all contests except track, of which S. A. Boles, head of the department of Physical Education, will be in charge.

STUDENTS TO TAKE BAR EXAM APRIL 15

Will be Held in the House of Representatives

About twenty University of Kentucky students are planning to take the state bar examination, which is to be held in Frankfort in the House of Representatives, Wednesday and Thursday, April 15 and 16. A student must have had two years of law before he may take this examination.

Among those who are eligible are: T. Bellantine, Louise Carson, M. B. Daniel, Lucy Edens, M. J. Fischer, Basil Frost, J. W. Gilton, Joe Hobson, Robert Honaker, H. C. Johnson, C. P. King, L. H. Liles, C. M. C. Porter, E. S. Melton, Minnie B. Peterson, Maurine Sharp, Taylor G. Smith, and A. W. Thompson.

RUSH ADVOCATES RE-VACCINATION

Dept. of Hygiene Issues Warning as to Smallpox Outbreak

The department of Hygiene and Public Health has sent out the following letter as means of warning against neglect concerning vaccination. Due to recent outbreaks of smallpox reported throughout the United States, the department feels that a word of advice should be given:

"Dear Sir:

"The department of Hygiene and Public Health feels that it is important to call your attention to the following matters:

"1. During the latter part of 1924 and early in this year there were several outbreaks of smallpox reported throughout the United States. This condition is said to be due in large part to individuals not being re-vaccinated frequently enough. It behooves each one of us who have not had a successful vaccination within the past seven years to be re-vaccinated now.

"2. You are, of course, aware that there has recently been developed a method for protecting children against diphtheria which is quite similar to protective inoculation for smallpox or typhoid fever. It behooves all of us to urge parents to have their children protected against this dread disease.

"3. Any individuals who are contemplating travel during the coming summer or residence in rural districts where they may be exposed to infection from typhoid fever would do well to be vaccinated at this time.

"Very truly yours,
(Signed) "J. E. Rush, M. D., Director."

NOTICE

The Y. W. C. A. will hold its election of officers immediately after the compulsory meeting for women students at the sixth hour today in the university gymnasium.

ROMANY TO GIVE "THE ENCHANTED COTTAGE," 30TH

Oskar Hambleton, Violet Young Will Take the Leads

STORY IS BY PINERO

Will be Last Production of the Subscription Season

The Romany Theatre will present as its fifth and final production of the subscription season, Pinero's "The Enchanted Cottage," during the entire week of March 30, Thursday and Friday nights will be student nights. There will be a matinee Saturday. The Romany players have plans under way for taking this production on tour in the month of April.

The scene of the play is laid in a cottage in Sussex county, England. The interior of the cottage will be furnished quaintly with antiques. The play is under the direction of Miss Clarabel Kay, manager of the Romany, and director of "Just Suppose." The dream scene at the end of the second act is under the direction of Miss Rosette March, publicity manager for the Romany.

WILDCATS DEBATE WITH MICHIGAN MONDAY EVENING

Brown, Keller and Bullock to Represent Kentucky

DEBATE 2 NIGHTS

To be Held at the Maxwell Presbyterian Church

Two debates will be held on successive nights with the strong Michigan Agricultural College team next week at the Maxwell Presbyterian church.

On Monday evening at 8 o'clock the question of the debate will be, "Resolved, That Congress should be empowered to override by a two-thirds majority vote, decisions of the Supreme Court declaring congressional action unconstitutional." On Tuesday night at the same hour, the subject will be, "Resolved, That the Japanese Exclusion Act of 1924 be repealed."

Kentucky will take the affirmative on the Supreme Court question and will be represented by John Y. Brown, W. O. Keller and John E. Bullock. Michigan's team will be composed of T. L. Christie, L. R. Miller and E. M. Chapman. On the second night J. B. Johnson and R. P. Maloney of Kentucky, will uphold the negative side of the Japanese Exclusion Act question, while Messrs. Chapman and Christie will be their opponents.

Last night the university opposed North Carolina in a debate held at Chapel Hill, N. C., on the Supreme Court question, but the results were not known as the kernel went to press. Kentucky had the negative side in this debate and was represented by W. O. Keller and John Y. Brown.

In the state oratorical contest held at Georgetown last Friday night, J. W. Jones of the university was awarded second prize. Fagan Dixon of Georgetown College won first place with his speech, "Greater America." Mr. Jones spoke on "Woodrow Wilson."

REPRESENTS 5TH CORPS AREA IN NATIONAL SHOOT

Manager Cancels All of Team's Future Engagements

LOSE TWO MATCHES

Locals Defeat Some of Nation's Strongest Teams

Unnoticed and unheralded, the university rifle team has won a place this year among the best collegiate rifle teams of the nation, losing only two matches and defeating some of the strongest teams in the country. The War Department has chosen this team to represent the Fifth Corps Area in the national rifle shoot next month.

The teams which went down to defeat before the rifles of the Blue and White marksmen during the past semester were Penn State, University of South Dakota, University of Pennsylvania, University of Arizona, University of Missouri and the University of Oklahoma. The two matches lost went to Ohio State and to V. M. I. by narrow margins.

Having been chosen to represent the Fifth Corps Area in the national shoot, Captain J. E. Torrence has announced that all future matches will be cancelled to permit the team to prepare for the contest. The coaches of the team will spend a major part of their time, until the date of the meet, in coaching and drilling the men.

There are nine corps areas in the United States and the University of Kentucky team will compete with 36 other university and college teams from all parts of the country. In the national meet last year Kentucky lost the United States in three stages of firing, but were defeated in the kneeling position.

The men on the firing squad this year are: Captain H. R. Brown, J. D. Rogers, J. C. Bobbitt, C. C. Rice, O. R. Travis, W. E. Weems, Mayo Anderson, George Woolf, Robert Creech, Manager D. Griffith, and Forkner, E. T. Bullock, R. Griffin, J. J. Richardson and C. D. Fife. The first eleven men were members of last year's squad.

The highest averages in the team are held by J. D. Rogers, a junior in the college of Agriculture, and E. T. Bullock, a junior in the Arts and Science college. Both men are tied for highest honors, each making an average of 389 out of a possible 400 on the U. K. range.

The team is coached by Captain J. E. Torrence, Sergeant Guy McGahan, Sergeant M. J. Eberhardt, and is managed by George Woolf.

DR. LUNN SPEAKS ON "RELATIVITY"

Lecturer is Professor of Math. at U. of Chicago

Dr. A. C. Lunn, professor of Applied Mathematics at the University of Chicago, will give a lecture this afternoon at 4 o'clock and at 7:30 o'clock in the Physics lecture room, room 201, C. and P. building.

The subject for the afternoon lecture is "The Historical Background of Einstein's Theory and the Geometry of Space and Time."

The subject for the evening lecture is "Relativity and the Quantum Theory."

Dr. Lunn is qualified to speak as an authority on the subject of relativity, being a worker in this field. Yesterday at 4 and 7:30 o'clock he gave two lectures, the subjects of which were "The Problem of the Atomic Constants and the Chemical Elements," and "The Relativity Motive in Scientific Theory," respectively. The evening lecture was preceded by a dinner in the University Cafeteria in honor of Doctor Lunn.

The lectures are open to all members of the university and all those interested are cordially invited to attend.

WHEN SHALL KENTUCKY GO FORWARD?

It is not possible for us to believe that there is any citizen in the proud old Commonwealth of Kentucky who does not heartily desire to see this state go forward, and yet there are a few of those who have considerable power who are not willing to place the best interest of Kentucky and her institutions above their personal interests and the interest which they represent.

It seems that they are given to make a sacrifice of the big things in order to promote things that have no material benefit to the state as a whole. How much longer are we to permit these gentlemen to go on with their quibbling over things of minor importance and give them such a place of importance in our large duties as to becloud the things for which every Kentuckian should be fighting? A state that is interested in the race track, another in a production tax on coal; another set in evolution, and another in blue sky laws; but for the sake of all right thinking citizens, why can we not all pull together for better educational facilities; better conditions for the unfortunate who are the wards of the state and for better highways? Is it not time to set aside all this many little talk and publicity concerning things that do not benefit all and take up the problems which will, if properly solved, put our state near the rank she should hold among the others of the Union?

Dr. Frank L. McVey, president of the University of Kentucky, in an address before the Exchange Club of Louisville a short time ago, certainly expressed what should be the sentiment of every loyal Kentuckian when he said:

"We have resources, enormous resources that might be developed in this commonwealth; there are industries in the eastern part of the state, industries in the great cities, and in the rural areas. Emphasis is also laid upon Kentucky as a great agricultural state; and yet there isn't any central agency to take these matters into consideration. Are we doing anything, other than here and there in individual communities, toward the building up of a great organization where all sorts of economic questions coming before us may be considered; questions of education, questions dealing with matters of literacy, dependency and public health. The answer is not encouraging. There is no great central agency that emphasizes the importance of these things and that keeps them constantly before the public. The state board of health does the best that it can, but it is handicapped because there isn't any body of business men and women, of people interested, that are building up a body of public opinion interested in the various things that should be done in the commonwealth.

"When we turn to another phase of the problem we find that there are groups here and there and elsewhere that are engaged in defending the position which they occupy. For instance, the farmers are saying their taxes are too high, and they are looking for some way to take the taxes off their lands and put them on something else. The coal mining concerns feel that they must defend themselves against any unjust imposition; and there are other groups that are engaged in building up organizations, political organizations in particular. The result is that we have a commonwealth that is divided into political camps that are hostile to each other and there is no pulling together. The people in the field of education hold conferences to talk over educational matters, thus stressing the importance of education and the necessity of larger expenditures, and they comment upon the difficulties with which they are confronted. This is only a part of it; educational people can't get anywhere, they can't really produce any results, they can't make progress until all the factors in the whole state get together in a program of progress."

"In this address the president of the highest public educational institution in the commonwealth has laid down the challenge to every citizen of the state to act in the future in accordance with our motto, 'UNITED WE STAND; DIVIDED WE FALL,' and to be boosters boosting for Kentucky first, and this means the Purchase as well as the Blue Grass and the Mountains as well as the Pennyroyal. For instance, the farmers are saying that there more people living in Kentucky read papers from St. Louis, Evansville and Chicago than those who read Kentucky papers; and those living in the northern most part of our state know more about Ohio and Ohio's problems than they do about Kentucky and the people residing along the Big Sandy and along the Kentucky River. The people of the state are in closer touch with Huntington and Ironton and some other out-of-state towns than they are with the villages and towns of the interior of their own commonwealth.

It occurs to us that the principal thing needed is a little educational campaign and further it appears to us that one of the best mediums through which such an awakening could be aroused is to change things as they should be in the public school system. It has been our contention for some time that there should be a conference of the heads of all of the higher institutions for public education in Kentucky for the purpose of not only agreeing on a program for these institutions which they should submit to the legislature and have passed, but to also consider the best methods for advancing our city, county and state government. In these institutions are men who have given their lives to the study of the problems of taxation and other subjects that are most essential to the production of the best government for the people; then why should we be forced to go longer without their advice and assistance, leaving things such vital importance to those who know little or nothing about such matters of state and have to act upon them in a hit-or-miss manner, usually miss? It is our candid opinion that a vast majority of the citizenry of Kentucky would welcome some such leadership and that many other organizations of a civic nature would join in with their strength in an united effort to bring about a new day in Kentucky.

We are prone to think that those who have left the borders of the grand old commonwealth and have taken up their dwelling place elsewhere believe that "Once a Kentuckian—Always a Kentuckian," and that wherever they are it is their duty to pull for their former state and to point to her as with pride. This is an excellent spirit and a bit of the same feeling planted in the minds of us who remain would be better for the state. The moment that our citizens begin to pull for the things of greatest importance and get away from all factional fights, Kentucky will go forward!

THE GRIDIRON BANQUET

The united George D. Prentice chapter of the Alpha Delta Sigma fraternity of Georgetown College and the Henry Watterson chapter of Alpha Delta Sigma of the University of Kentucky presented a program at the Gridiron Dinner Monday, March 16, that will long be remembered as one of originality and talent.

The students of Georgetown College and the students of the University of Kentucky, the citizens of Georgetown and Lexington, joined forces in making the game played in the new basketball building Friday, March 20, and in making it probably the most outstanding game of the season played here. The university and Georgetown College together furnished the floor and one-half of the contestants. These players were cheered on by mingled Georgetown and Lexington rooters. We are glad of this comradeship and fellowship with a sister institution of higher education. We trust that it may grow.

In writing of the game, the Lexington Leader says: "Although they won the game by a margin of seven points, 22 to 15, the Favorite Knits of Cleveland, Ohio, girls' independent basketball champions of the United States, realized in the University of Kentucky gymnasium Friday night that they were faced by a foe worthy of their class and the girls of Georgetown high school, champions of Kentucky, demonstrated even in defeat to a crowd of approximately 4,500 persons, the largest ever to attend a basketball game in the state, that their reputation of being 'wonders' is truly deserving and in no manner can be justly termed a sobriquet of exaggerated ability."

They are "wonders." We take pride in the fact that the Georgetown girls are Kentucky girls and that they played on our floor.

GRADUATE OF 1907 SKETCHED IN PAPER

Walter Ferrell "Written Up" in Trade Journal

In "Who's Who of Ferro Columns," a monthly publication issued by the Ferro Construction Company of Cincinnati, there appears in the February issue a sketch of Walter Ferrell, who was graduated in Engineering with the class of '07 with the degree in Mechanical Engineering back in the days when each branch of the Engineering college was a separate college. Ferrell has been connected with several engineering companies until he became connected with his present employers in 1916. He married Miss Retta Otter in 1910 and they have a son seven years of age. They live at 1003 Fort Thomas avenue, Fort Thomas.

U. K. ALUMNI OF LOUISVILLE WAKE

25 Subscriptions are Result of First Two Meetings

At last the Louisville alumni have come to life and it came about by the untiring efforts of N. Gray Rochester, the newly elected president. Some time ago Mr. Rochester called a meeting of those interested, at the Brown hotel and out of this meeting has grown the best luncheon club in Louisville. We met the first Saturday afternoon in the private dining rooms of the Brown hotel. A cordial invitation is extended to all members of the faculty as well as students and alumni to meet with us on these days. Two luncheons have already been held and over thirty were present at each luncheon. The first Saturday in April we are expecting 75. Already 25 subscriptions have been sent in to the Association and at each luncheon others will be secured until every alumnus in Jefferson county will be a member in good standing with all dues paid.

Mr. Rochester, who has been elected president, will remember his "Rooter" by all. He played short stop on the 1909 and 1910 teams and was graduated with an A. B. degree in 1912. Since that time he has lived in Louisville and is now manager for the new Brown building for doctors that J. Graham Brown is building at Fourth and Broadway. Mr. Rochester is active in social and welfare work in Louisville, being a member of the Lions Club, the St. Paul M. E. Church, South, and a teacher of one of the largest men's Bible classes in Louisville. He holds the distinction of having made more after-dinner speeches than any other man of his age in Kentucky.

Ralph Morgan '15 was elected Vice-president. Mr. Morgan is with the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company and is very active in the affairs of the Club. He lives at 115 South Hite avenue. Miss Christine Hopkins '15 of the Louisville Girls high school was elected Secretary. Miss Hopkins has always had a keen interest in the Association and has been a loyal supporter of its plans. Robert Barnes '22, with the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, was elected Treasurer. The 25 subscriptions mailed to the Alumni office certainly show we were right in our choice. All we've got to say is "Watch our smoke. We will all be there at the Brown on the night of April 23 with feathers on."

LEXINGTON ALUM. BANQUET TEAMS

Local Club Defines Policies of the Organization

The Lexington Alumni Club entertained at the Lafayette hotel with a luncheon Saturday in honor of the members of the varsity and freshman basketball teams and substitutes, and on behalf of the Athletic Council, "Daddy" Boles presented the guests letters and numerals made during the season just closed. Burgess Carey was elected by the letter men to be captain of the 1926 squad and his selection was announced by the retiring captain, Jimmie McFarland, before the party adjourned. Miss Marguerite McLaughlin, president of the club, presided at the luncheon and announced that the policy of the club in the future would be to assemble for lunch when there was some particularly pleasant duty such as honoring members of the athletic teams or welcoming former students and alumni to the campus. The monthly luncheons are unnecessary in the opinion of the alumni who are active in the organization and will not be held in the future.

In an expression of appreciation to the Club for the hospitality, Mr. Boles said that he considered the luncheon a decided success because the occasion for presenting letters and numerals previously had been an affair strikingly lacking in color and having none of the festivity that is usually considered appropriate for the closing of the season for other teams. The Club members agreed that the 1925 luncheon should be the first of an annual party which it is hoped will grow in interest and significance.

BUFFALO PLANS FOR ENGRS' VISIT

Regular Luncheon Well Attended; C. Collis is Guest

The regular monthly luncheon of the Buffalo Alumni Club was held on March 14 at the Chamber of Commerce. Besides the 21 regular members, we were pleased to have with us Mr. Coleman Collis '25, who was passing through Buffalo. Considerable business was transacted, consisting mostly of reports of committees making arrangements for the annual inspection trip of the Senior Engineers, who are coming to Buffalo again this year.

The Senior Engineers coming to Buffalo for the third successive year is very pleasing to all the Buffalo world, and at Buffalo several plants have been found to be an ideal place for an inspection trip of this kind due to the varied industries. Also, Niagara Falls is only a short distance from Buffalo and the Senior Engineers an opportunity to see one of the greatest scenic wonders in the world. While in Niagara Falls they will see the largest hydro-electric plant in the world, and at Buffalo several plants will be visited, such as the Larkin Company, one of the largest mail order houses in the country, the Pierce-Arrow Motor Car Company, manufacturers of the finest American made automobile, the American Radiator Company, makers of boilers, radiators, etc., and several other plants of equal interest.

Edgar Bennett is resident engineer of the Street Railway Sustainy, 1301 Market Street, Chattanooga, Tenn. His residence address is 15 East Chamberlain street.

LEXINGTON PLANS A BANNER YEAR

McLaughlin, McFerrin, Brown, Innis, New Officers

The wisdom and foresight of the members of the Lexington Alumni Club in the election of their officers last Saturday, has made it possible for that club to look forward to a year of growth and increased influence. Miss Marguerite McLaughlin '03, ever active alumna and booster of the university, was elected president. Much of the success of the Homecoming dance was due to her usual untiring efforts, as has been the case in many other undertakings of the club, the Association and the university. As instructor in journalism, she has presented the university to her students in a way that has had an indelible influence on the attitude of the state toward this institution.

W. Viley McFerrin ex-'08, the new vice-president, has been a regular attendant at the monthly luncheons and the athletic contests and has always shown a keen interest in matters affecting the welfare of "Old U. of K." Mr. McFerrin is a prominent insurance man with offices in the Fayette Bank building. He received notice yesterday of his appointment as commander of the Kentucky division of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, to succeed the late Malcolm H. Crump, of Bowling Green. The new state commander was one of the organizers of the Philip Preston Johnston camp at Lexington in February. Before coming to Lexington Mr. McFerrin was a member of the camp at Bowling Green.

W. C. Brown '20, who was elected secretary, has been an ever-loyal member of the Association and is an enthusiastic supporter of all phases of the program of this school. He is the son of Confederate Veterans, to succeed the late Malcolm H. Crump, of Bowling Green. The new state commander was one of the organizers of the Philip Preston Johnston camp at Lexington in February. Before coming to Lexington Mr. McFerrin was a member of the camp at Bowling Green.

NOTE—This article was written by the Secretary for the Alumni Page last week, but through error it appeared in another section of the Kernel.

CLASS PERSONALS

John M. Waugh ex-'07, a "lost" alumna for some time, is now living at Asland, where he is criminal attorney.

David M. Brock is U. S. engineer and contractor with offices at 204 West Chestnut street, Louisville. He is living at 1218 Willow avenue.

Chester L. Doyle is engineer and contractor with offices at 204 West Chestnut street, Louisville. He is living at 1218 Willow avenue.

ALUMNI DUES AND SUBSCRIPTION TO THE KERNEL $2

We recently received alumni dues from Howard K. Bell, civil engineer with the Babcock & Wilcox Company, 418 Hernandez building, Lexington. Mr. Bell received his B. S. from Georgetown College in 1903.

Charles C. Hedges, who received his A. B. in 1908 and his Ph.D. in 1912 from Cornell University, is head of the department of Chemistry and Civil Engineering at the A. & M. College of Texas, College Station, Texas.

Philip F. Shannon is field superintendent with the Continental Oil Producing Company, and is now located at Lusk, Wyo. He married Miss Janet C. Menzie December 18, 1917, and they have two children, Phil F. Jr., age 9 1-2, and Janet M., age 2.

SOCIETY NOTES

Ah! Once more the song,
As Winter doffs its coat—
Of the happy, singing throng,
Gay as the robin's note.

Buds burst in splendor,
Birds begin to sing—
Love songs so tender,
Tis joyful, happy spring.

Calendar

Friday, March 27—Alpha Xi Delta bridge party at the Lafayette hotel.

Friday, March 27—Junior Prom in the men's gymnasium from 9 to 1.

Saturday, March 28—Kappa Kappa Gamma tea dance in the men's gym from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Saturday, March 28—Delta Zeta formal in the Phoenix hotel from 9 to 12 o'clock.

Saturday, March 28—Tau Beta Pi dance in Dicker Hall from 8:30 to 12 o'clock.

A. T. O. Formal

One of the loveliest of the university dances was that given by the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity Saturday evening in the men's gym from 8:30 to 12 o'clock. The gym was artistically decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being carried out in the fraternity colors, blue and gold.

Streamers of the two colors hung from the lights, which were shaded with papers cut in the form of the fraternity emblem, a Maltese cross. The illuminated emblem in frosted lights hung above the orchestra platform. Ferns were placed about the punch table. During the no-break dances, vari-colored spot lights were used, creating a beautiful effect.

Art Payne's orchestra from Louisville furnished the music and fruit punch was served.

Members of the active chapter are: Poster Adams, James Augustus, Watson Armstrong, Floyd Arnold, Arthur Bickel, Viley Bell, P. P. Baker, James Colvin, John Dalney, James Ellis, Loyd Ficken, Stanley Griffith, Albert Harbold, Ben Garr King, Ben Kievit, Arthur Morris, Hugh Meriwether, Ford Ogden, George Ragland, Karl Rohs, Truman Rumberger, Joseph Roberts, Wallace Shropshire, Ralph Taylor, Dow Williams.

Pledges: Rowland Eddy, Wallace Grammar, Paul Jenkins, John Lair, Houston Meyers, Thomas Mercke, Albert Nelson, James Patterson, E. A. Richardson, Loyd Terrell, Lewis Voers and William Zopf.

Mortar Board Carnival and Dance.
Staff and Crown chapter of Mortar Board of the university entertained with a delightful carnival and dance Friday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock in the new gymnasium.

Tables attractively decorated with shamrocks and green candles were placed about the room for those who desired to play cards and thirty fresh man girls, wearing green aprons cut as shamrocks, served sandwiches and green lemonade. The Blue and White orchestra furnished music for the dancing.

Proceeds from the entertainment are to be used to make a donation to Pine Mountain Settlement school and to offer a silver trophy to the freshman girl making the highest scholastic standing.

The following invitations have been issued to the members of the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority:

Pledge Announced

Zeta Tau Alpha announces the pledging of Miss Madell Van Cleve, of Cave City, and Volinda Irvin, of Bardstovon.

Initiation and Banquet

Scabard and Blade, honorary military fraternity, held initiation services and banquet Tuesday night. The initiation was conducted from 7 to 9 on the campus of the university and was immediately followed with a banquet in the palm room of the Phoenix hotel.

For the banquet the tables were arranged in an attractive design and were decorated with spring flowers. Clyde Gray, president of the chapter, acted as toast master and during the evening all of the active chapter and initiates responded with a toast.

Those who were initiated are: Leonard Tracy, A. H. Harbold, E. T. Bullock, Joe Walter, H. H. Grooms, J. A. Warren, Richard Williams, H. R. Brown, Adrian Terrell, Gardner Bayless, Lyle Cassidy, James McFarland, Henry Lee Woods, Peter Derrick, and John Dabney.

Meeting of Club

The Scribblers Club held its meeting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Miner, on Waller avenue, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The following program was given: A Short Story—Miss Mary Shouse; Relating Experiences—Mary Praitt; Poetry—Mr. Girder Fitch.

Bridge Party

The alumnae of Alpha Xi Delta will entertain with a bridge party Friday afternoon, March 27, at the Lafayette hotel from 3 to 6 o'clock. During the afternoon home made candy will be sold. The active chapter have the tickets and anyone wishing to attend the party may buy one from any member of the chapter for fifty cents.

Personals

Earl Maxwell Heavrin '24, is spending a few days with fraternity brothers at the Alpha Sigma Phi house. Mr. Heavrin is now practicing law in Hartford, Ky.

Miss Janet McVey, who is attending school at Goucher College, arrived Saturday to spend the spring vacation with Dr. and Mrs. Frank L. McVey.

Mr. Hyman Krog, a former student of the university, spent the week-end with fraternity brothers at the Alpha Tau Omega house and attended the formal dance Saturday evening.

Mr. Carter Farrington was ill for several days at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Prof. Wm. R. Sutherland, professor of Public Speaking at the university, left Tuesday for his home in Michigan, where he was called by the death of his father. He is expected to return Monday.

LINES

Written in Professor Dantzler's Class
February 28, 1925

Adams apple all a-quiver,
Stood he 'for us in his power—
Great amusement at our dumbness
Made the shiv'ring students cover.

On he quizzed us so relentless
That in nervousness we twisted
Then with tone very sonorous
Our defeats he gladly listed.

"First," quoth he, "ye much are absent."

Next, ye know not when ye come.
Expected in a class of this size
Knowledge I should find in some.

"Ye are but a disappointment—
Boredom 'side you would be bliss;
Would that I might do as you do;
Oft times class I'd like to miss."

On and on he railed thus at us;
Minutes dragged on slowly by.
Then the bell rang and the cynic
Smiled at our confusion. WHY?

DAIRY STUDENTS VISIT "IDLE HOUR"

Inspect Famous Racers and Imported Jerseys

Students in advance Dairy Cattle Judging, numbering eighteen men, were guests of E. R. Bradley, owner of Idle Hour farm, Tuesday, on the Old Frankfort Pike.

The management spent no small degree of effort in making the visit a profitable one for the students. In addition to a string of race horses, headed by "Behave Yourself" and "Black Servant," finishers in the '22 Kentucky Derby, and "Black Tony," sire of "Black Servant," Mr. Bradley has several splendid heads of Jersey cattle, some of them imported from the Islands.

"Did you say she danced like a zephyr?"
"Zephyr, nothing—like a heifer."

TOM BALLANTINE IS RECOGNIZED AS OUTSTANDING

Prominent in Social and Scholastic Achievements

IS LAW COL. SENIOR

President of Southern Federation of Student Councils

Tom Ballantine, son of Mr. T. H. Ballantine, of Calhoun, entered the University of Kentucky in September 1921, after he was graduated from the Calhoun high school in the class of '20, having been president of the class. He will be graduated from the college of Law this June.

His outstanding qualities are many, and chief among them is his loyalty to his Alma Mater. Since his entrance as a freshman he has been a valued supporter of the university and has accomplished notable things.

For four years Tom has been a member of the Saky Circle, of which he was vice-president in 1924. This organization is composed of the most active boys and girls on the campus whose purpose it is to arouse and maintain among the student body a stronger sportsmanlike school spirit.

Ballantine has been a member of the Student Council for two years and was elected vice-president for this year. Last year he represented the Kentucky Student Council at the Southern Federation of College Students Convention held at North Carolina and was then elected president of the Federation. He will preside at a convention to be held at the University of Florida some time this spring.

He is manager of the baseball team this year.

Notwithstanding his various student activities, Tom ranks high in scholarship, as is evidenced to the number of honorary fraternities to which he has achieved membership. He is a member of the Mystic Thirteen (Junior honorary fraternity), Lamp and Cross (Senior honorary fraternity), Scabbard and Blade (honorary Military fraternity), and of Phi Alpha Delta (honorary Law fraternity). He represented Phi Alpha Delta last year at Washington, D. C. Ballantine is a member of Phi Kappa Tau social fraternity.

STUDENTS' FORUM

In the March 20 edition of the Kernel a headline conveys the information that rumors are rife that certain games at the 1925 Kentucky State High School Net Meet were not properly refereed and this is followed by an article which infers that the Pikeville-Manual game was, in a sense, "thrown" by the referee. This inference arises from the "statements" of certain persons who are alleged to have declared that the referee's whistle did not sound for time-out for Jeffries to shoot two fouls which had been awarded to him.

Now, I did not attend this particular game and must, therefore, be guided by the published statement of these anonymous observers, but I can scarcely comprehend how Jeffries was even allowed to take the free throws unless the referee's whistle sounded at the commission of the foul.

According to the present rule, time out is automatically taken when two free throws are made and the ball does not go into play again unless the foul-thrower is unsuccessful in his second endeavor.

Now, I have presumed that the timers employed at the tournament were competent in their judgment as to the taking of time out, but if they neglected to do this, it was their neglect and theirs alone, not the referee's, whose duty does not include this branch of officiating.

Concerning the division of the tournament into two brackets, it may appeal to the imagination of those who have propagated the idea to substitute for the city and town principle, one which would comprehend on the one hand those who have come under the "observers'" suspicion and on the other those that are as yet "illy white."

UNSEEN FORCES

Swooping down from his hidden cache, leaving behind it a path of inestimable destruction and depriving hundreds of that which man values most, human life, a combination of elements spent their energies through Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky last Wednesday night.

The visit of the tornado was directed by that Supreme Being with whom man has no physical associations. Such catastrophes tend to make man feel his insignificance, his smallness and his absolute inability to cope with the elements. We all know that there is nothing we can do to prevent or in any wise control cyclones.

Ordinarily, when a catastrophe occurs, man begins to seek someone on whom he can directly fix the blame. If a dam bursts, man seeks the engineer who built it; if a ship sinks, man investigates the cause very carefully and attempts to pass laws that will prevent such occurrences in the future, but when the power of God manifests itself, man knows that he is helpless.

A prosperous home, a happy fireside—and suddenly desolation, ruin, and death in the wake of elements directed by God—such a comparison makes man realize his inability to control his destiny.

There is but one thing man may do after such cataclysms. It is futile for him to wring his hands and say: "Wasn't it awful; but what could I do." Man may alleviate the sufferings caused by such visitations from God. The proper thing to do after such occurrences is to get busy helping those who are directly affected by it.

Of course, we realize that we have no power over floods and tornados, and they bring to us the realization that we have little control concerning our fate. Bury the dead, administer to the injured, comfort the sorrowing and get right with God so that should your life be required of you in the same sudden manner, you will not be found unprepared.

AS OTHERS SEE US

In a recent publication of an extension of his remarks in the Congressional Record, Meyer Jacobstein cited among the distinguished American economists and sociologists, two names we claim as our own—those of Dr. Edward West and Dr. Charles Turck.

Dean Turck is honored and revered in the college of Law and is a legal authority par excellence throughout the state. His mentality and great fund of information have always been respected on the campus, but an outside opinion awakens us to the keener consciousness of his worth.

Nor has Dr. West lacked esteem and appreciation from the students in the departments of Sociology and Economics and the graduate school. His intellectuality and broad comprehension of his subjects, his sympathy and interest in the aspirations of the graduate students, have made him the inspiration and ideal of man whose lives he has touched.

SPRING CLEANING ON THE NEW YORK STAGE

No movement is so difficult to carry through as the reform movement, and it is never so effective as when started from within. The fact, then, that the playwrights and actors themselves have started a movement to clean up the New York stage is fraught with significance and hope.

The sentiment opposing unclean and uselessly suggestive plays leads to the breaking point when the leading lady of William Bradley's new play, "The Good Bad Woman," remonstrated with her employer over speaking lines which were revolting to her sense of delicacy. Bradley tried to hold her to her contract and her fellow actors protested, threatening to ostracize him if he did not remove the play from the boards. And Bradley was forced to give in.

The return to realism both in literature and the drama has been the excuse for the presentation of much that is vulgar and unpleasantly suggestive. Almost every theatrical production now has a sex theme to a greater or lesser degree. The plays "White Cargo" and "Rain" are typical examples of some of the objectional type. It is to be regretted that the return of the romantic drama to the moving pictures has not been carried to the speaking stage.

Such vulgarity is, of course, not a new thing. Before the age of Victorian repression, the Puritans fought against the corruption of the stage. And so it has been for centuries. Even Shakespeare stooped to pander to the public in that respect. With the advent of Freud and the awakened social sensibilities, the drama reflected the interest in the new type of realism which is so morbidly introspective of the "why" of human motives and actions. The chief aim of most of those plays seems to be to force upon one the unpleasantness of the "seamy" side of life and to rid us of the foolish idea that life is at all decent or kind. It is almost useless as well as dangerous to put the restriction of censorship upon the playwrights themselves and the public is slow to express its opinion by restrictions.

Thus we feel that the best method of reform has been adopted: the voluntary resolution by the actors themselves and some playwrights to give the public more of the wholesome and to take pride in raising the spirit and tone of their art.

WHY waste time and energy trying to twist yourself into an engineer when your natural bent is away from matters technical? It isn't necessary.

In these days, industry, and particularly the electrical industry, is so broad as to require men in all lines of work. Engineers of course, but there is plenty of opportunity for men in the purchasing, manufacturing, accounting, legal and other commercial departments as well.

There's a good rule to follow. Find out what work you are naturally fitted for—then go to it. And isn't it better to be a

A HAPPY HOME

The knowledge that a fixed monthly income, sufficient to meet your ordinary obligations throughout your life has been assured to you—no matter what may happen, would be most comforting—would it not?
It would insure the education of those dear children—the comfort

WILDCAT BASKETBALL CAPTAIN FOR 1925-26 IS NAMED

BURGESS CAREY TO LEAD THE NET TEAM NEXT YEAR

Sterling Back Guard Elected Captain Last Saturday

ON ALL-KENTUCKY

Eight Letters, Twelve Numerals Awarded at Dinner

Burgess Carey, a junior in the college of Arts and Sciences, will captain the University of Kentucky basketball team during the 1925-26 campaign.

Carey played a stellar brand of ball at back guard this year, his second on the Lexington high school, where he was a member of the world's championship team in 1921. Carey has played the game since he was a grammar school youngster.

He is a member of the Kernel's all-Kentucky team, appearing in this issue.

Carey was elected captain at a luncheon of the Lexington Alumni Association at the Lafayette hotel given in honor of the varsity and freshman basketball players last Saturday afternoon. He is a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity. Carey succeeds Jimmy McFarland, also of Lexington, as leader of the 'cats.

Letters were awarded to the following varsity men by Daddy Boles, athletic director of the university, at a meeting held Thursday night in the trophy room in the basketball building: Carey, McFarland, Underwood, Helm, Hughes, Alberts, Milward and Rols. Of these, Carey, McFarland, Underwood, Milward and Helm are members of the famous Blue Devil team of 1922. This makes the sixth letter awarded Hughes, who also has four numerals to his credit. Hughes is a native of Repton, Kentucky. Alberts is from Winchester and Rols is from Cynthiana.

Freshman numerals were awarded to: Ropke, Jenkins, Hickerson, Steele, Sharpe, Phipps, Taylor, Berry, Martin, Champ, Mohny, and Ellis.

FROSH BASEBALL SQUAD REPORTS

Pitching Staff and Out-Field Appear Formidable

After pulling through a successful football and basketball season, the freshmen are hard at work for the oncoming baseball season.

It is hoped by the students and supporters of the university, that Ray Eklund, coach, who has so successfully tutored winning teams in football and basketball, will also turn out a good freshman baseball team. Eklund, while a student at the University of Minnesota, starred in baseball in his senior year. He led the Big Ten Conference in fielding, having a perfect percentage for the season.

Many former high school stars were present the first day of practice held last Monday. The catching and pitching staffs will be strong this year. Myers, of Millersburg Military Institute, and Charles Wert, of the Covington high school, are the two best pitchers out this year. Myers averaged fifteen strikeouts a game last season, in addition to a percentage around the .500 mark in batting. Wert, already known for his great football games last fall on the frosh eleven, is one of the best pitchers ever turned out at Covington. He

HIKE TO BE GIVEN

A hike will be given for all university girls by the Woman's Athletic Association Saturday, March 28. The party will leave Patterson Hall at 11 o'clock.

CINDER ARTISTS PREPARE FOR A BUMPER SEASON

To Meet Big Ten Teams For the First Time

SOME INELIGIBLE

State Track Meet Will be Held Here on May 23

With three weeks of limbering up and practice stowed under their belts, the Wildcat track artists are looking forward to one of the most promising seasons that has ever been enjoyed by a track team of this institution. "Daddy" Boles has scheduled the best teams in the south and has already expressed his willingness for the team to participate in the S. I. C. meet to be held at Sewanee this year. For the first time in the history of the institution a track team representing Kentucky will go north of the Ohio River, to compete against Indiana University at Bloomington. Each year Indiana puts out one of the best track teams in the Big Ten, and from all reports this year will be no exception.

In the S. I. C. meet Kentucky will be pitted against some of the ablest track men in the south, which is one reason why the 'cats are training so diligently every day. Last year in this same meet, Kentucky finished second, with only seven men comprising the squad.

Last year the team, under the tutelage of George Buchheit, finished as the best team in the state and one of the five best teams in the south. In the state inter-collegiate meet they trebled the points of their nearest rival, Centre. Had it not been for Gordy, the jumper and weight man, and Berryman, sensational sprinter, Centre would not have scored enough points to have enabled a man to earn the necessary five points for a letter. The Wildcats also beat Vanderbilt and Tennessee decisively in dual meets earlier in the year.

This year the team will be under the coaching system of Clarence Applegan, former Illinois track star. Applegan is not bothered by the fact that a number of men were lost through graduation, because only one man, Nantz, was graduated, although several men will be ineligible.

The letter men who are back in harness are Captain Woolf, Dewhurst, Brady, Anglin, Tracy, Hughes, Caldwell, Milton, Creech and B. Hall. Men from last year's freshman squad who will probably earn positions on the varsity this season are: Lindel, Davis, Souseley and Dawson.

The schedule: April 2-3, Class Meet. April 25, Vanderbilt, here. May 2, Sewanee, at Sewanee. May 9, Indiana, at Bloomington. May 16, S. I. C. Meet at Sewanee. May 23, State Inter-Collegiate Meet.

struck out more than 200 batters last season.

Behind the plate the candidates are Schutte, running mate of Wert, and Erickson. The latter has had several chances to go to the big leagues with his catching ability. The freshmen should have in him one of the best catchers that has ever played here. For the infield Ropke, McAlvin, Champ, Jerg, Taylor, Trierber and Berry are all working hard for berths.

In the outfield Phipps, Martin, Covington, Kames, Mosser and Kepper are in the togs of garden chasers.

HARD FIGHT IS ON FOR PLACES ON BASEBALL TEAM

30 Men Answer First Official Call of the Coach

TO CUT SQUAD SOON

Season Opens April 9 With Georgetown Tigers

Monday afternoon Coach Fred J. Murphy issued his first official call for baseball on the field, and about thirty future Ty Cobbs responded. The week's program included instructions in the fundamentals and also in the finer points of the national pastime. Batting and fielding practice were also indulged in by the Blue and White baseball men. Several of the men showed unusually early season ability at clouting the horseshoe and snagging the ball off the ground.

Murphy will have to whip the team into shape on short notice, as the Wildcats play their first game with the Georgetown Tigers at Georgetown on April 9. On April 11 the 'cats oppose the University of Michigan team, which makes its annual appearance against Kentucky. Last year the 'cats clawed the Michigan ball tossers into submission by the score of 9 to 8. Two days after the Michigan encounter the Felines will journey to Louisville to cross bats with the Cardinals of the University of Louisville. These will be the only games played before the spring vacation.

The large number of the candidates is handicapping Murphy in his efforts to pick a winning aggregation. He had to cut the squad by the end of the week.

From the way some of the men are fighting for positions it looks as if Coach Murphy is going to have a hard time picking his first team men.

Gregg, Chancellor, Vossmeier, Jess Riffe and Samuels look good for a formidable pitching staff, with Eklund and Goodwin showing up nicely behind the plate.

Faust, Ackerman and Captain Reid Miller are taking care of the first sack, while Frank Smith has been eating the fast ones around second. Alberts, Adams and Evans are showing class at shortstop. Croft, Barge and Sherwood have been snagging the ball in pleasing fashion around the third sack.

There are many candidates for the outfield and Kentucky should have a strong outer garden. Helm, Hughes, Riffe, Arnold, Jones, Armstrong, Madrox, Rumberger, Netherton and Oliver are having a merry battle for the outfield positions and some of them may prove a sensation this spring.

With good weather Murphy should get his men in shape by April 9. The squad is still crude and awkward and will need much practice before it can show to advantage with other college nines.

3 SPONSORS ARE DECLARED INELIGIBLE FOR REGIMENT

Because of the ineligibility of three of the cadet sponsors recently elected by the R. O. T. C. regiment officers, the following named young ladies were selected to fill the vacancies created by their withdrawal: Miss Charlesy Smith, Harriet McCauley, and Helen Board. Each of the three will hold the rank of captain.

Four Wildcats Named on All-Kentucky; Two Berea Players Honored in Selection; Game Shows Improvement in Kentucky

WRIGHT SEASON'S NET SENSATION

McFarland Honored Although He Has Had Off Season

By FRANK K. HOOVER Chief among basketball surprises of the past season was that of the Berea College net team. Ranked by many to finish the season as they had been in the able of finishing—many games behind—the squad showed a "smartness" that made all Kentucky teams step when they encountered them in a game and consequently their players have cut quite a figure in all-Kentucky selections of collegiate teams by Kentucky sports writers.

Picking "All-" teams has become a habit with sports writers and the Kernel comes forth today with its all-Kentucky after so long a time. Of course, the world will little know or long remember, but nevertheless we are satisfying our greenish desire to "pick one of 'em."

Right off the reel we are favoring our own Alma Mater. Some might say we are selfish but it appears to us that none in Kentucky stack up those who know these men. McFarland with Underwood. These two forwards drew high praise in the southern tournament at Atlanta this year. Although McFarland had an off season, his playing was a deciding factor in many Wildcat victories and without him Kentucky would not have gone far in the state or anywhere else. Always good at long shots, he can shoot equally as well from the foul line or from under the basket and is always "on his man." Underwood's playing resembles that of McFarland, although Cowboy pulled more points this year than did McFarland. Underwood had a tendency to lose his man on a few occasions, but so seldom did this occur that it went unnoticed for the most part.

FOUR FIVES SHOW FORM IN STATE

Berea Team Upsets the Dope and Ranks With Best

In choosing a running mate for Underwood and McFarland, we have chosen Maggard, lanky Berea forward, who, although not a finished player, showed much playing sense against strong teams. He was a great scorer for his team and put it in the running many times when it apparently had lost the game. We have placed Covington, of Centre, and Wright, of Berea, on our team at center. The former, although he did not get into many games during the season, showed enough form during his stay to merit him a place on the squad. His playing reflected on the general team work of Centre when he did return, as the Colonels had been in a bad slump. He was really the high light in the game in which Centre lost to Blue in the championship game last season.

To say the least, Wright is a "bearcat" at center. The Berea man towers near the seven foot mark and can juggle the ball above the heads of ordinary players with consummate ease. He was high point man in Kentucky basketball circles during the season and was one of the leading point makers of the south. If the Wildcats had him they would be world beaters.

When we first thought of presenting an all-Kentucky, the first name which popped into our heads was that of "Chuck" Alberts. Probably there is a reason. To our mind, Alberts was the individual star of the Kentucky team last season. Small in stature but mighty in physical strength and in nerve, he jumped with men one and two feet taller than himself and on rare occasions did any outjump him. His manner of streaking down the floor to take a long pass for a crisp startle many a droopy fan during the season and made his take a theretofore unknown interest in the game. Ed Danforth, Kentucky's own son, saw Alberts in action in Atlanta and the Atlanta Georgian sports editor praised the mite fighter more than any one other in the tournament. It was the unknown quantity when the season opened last

FOUR FIVES SHOW FORM IN STATE

Berea Team Upsets the Dope and Ranks With Best

December, but this boy worked off some of his avoirdupois, perfected his pivoting, worked off his awkwardness, gained his eagle eye for the basket and got—well you see he is on the all-Kentucky. Carey got off to a flying start and was never headed. In the first game he caged a goal from mid-floor and his enthusiasm carried him through one of his greatest seasons. When an opponent beat him to a ball which looked like it was coming off the backboard, he was flying and few showed any advantage against him.

Gividen, Transy's wonder guard, is the other man we have placed on our squad. He was largely responsible for the wonderful success of the Pioneer team last season and deserves the place he has received. Always with his opponent and good at taking the ball off the backboard and at shooting, he made the Crismons a man.

Basketball in Kentucky, on the whole, enjoyed its best season since the game gained national recognition. Kentucky Wesleyan, Berea, the University of Kentucky, the University of Louisville, Centre and Georgetown have spread Kentucky's name thru the south and the first four teams had great success, meeting and defeating the best teams below the Mason and Dixon line. The Wesleyanites established an enviable record and may be championship contenders next year. Georgetown and Centre had the breaks against them and their teams went to pieces early in the season. Georgetown regained a little of her cunning in her last games, but Centre was never able to compete successfully with any teams of equal calibre.

FROSH TRACK MEN UNDER APPLERGRAN

Eklund Will Devote All Time to Baseball

The freshman track team has not such a bright outlook. No schedules have been made and whether or not all track activities will be held is not known. Ray Eklund, freshman coach, will not tutor the track men, as he will devote all of his time to baseball. Coach Applegan will have charge of all track activities and all freshmen will be under his supervision and will run in conjunction with the varsity men in practice.

SHADOAN TO COACH FROSH AT CENTRE

Is Named Assistant Athletic Director

William Shadoan, famous Centre College football player in '21, the year Harvard was defeated by the Colonels, has been made assistant athletic director of Centre College, according to a report received from President Montgomery.

Shadoan, formerly of Somerset, comes to Centre from Valparaiso University, where he was coach of football and basketball. He turned out a basketball team which defeated Centre last year and tied the Centre College southern championship football eleven on Centre's own field last fall.

Centre is to be congratulated upon securing his services. He will coach the freshman football team next year.

Previous to the finals, the sophs had registered two wins over the seniors, and were expected to cop the title. Neither team played good basketball and many easy shots were missed by the two teams.

Kenney, Paris A. C. player, was the outstanding star for the winners. Towles also played a good game at back guard. Foust was high point man, making many long shots. McClenahan was the best with the scoring for the sophs, although he missed numerous shots from close range.

The seniors will be presented with sweaters by the Athletic Council for winning the championship. The sophomores take second place and the juniors third. The freshman are in the cellar in the league standing, no team having been able to oust them from their position.

MISS CAMPBELL TO SPEAK HERE APR. 1

Will Address Women on "Home Economics"

On Wednesday, April 1, at the fifth hour in room 205 of the Administration building, Miss Campbell, of Washington, will speak to the women students of the university. Miss Campbell is a member of the United States Department of Home Economics and will take as her subject "Home Economics as a Field for Women." This lecture is especially for the benefit of the girls in the Home Economics department.

In the afternoon a tea will be given in the Practice House from 4 to 6 o'clock in order that all the women students may have the opportunity of meeting Miss Campbell.

DR. FUNKHOUSER GIVES ADDRESS

Tells of Sand Cave at the Monthly Convocation

"Sand Cave" was the subject of an address by Dr. W. D. Funkhouser, head of the department of Zoology of the university, at the March convocation of all students Tuesday morning in the basketball auditorium. The largest audience of any of the monthly convocations held this year was present to hear the true account of the tragedy of Floyd Collins from the mouth of one so prominent in the vain effort to save his life.

The huge assemblage sat spell-bound for three-quarters of an hour as Dr. Funkhouser described the tunnel in which Collins was trapped and the many different efforts made to free him. The highest tribute was paid by the speaker to "Bill" McFarland, star tackle on the 1923 Wildcat football team and now a student at Western Kentucky Normal School, and to other men who worked so zealously to rescue the entombed man.

A trio from the Women's Glee Club rendered a selection that received hearty applause. The meeting was opened by the Reverend Hayes Ferris of the Woodland Christian Church, who asked the invocation. The benediction was pronounced by the Reverend T. C. Eton of the Calvary Baptist Church.

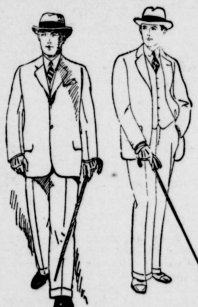

Judge Florence Allen, of the Supreme Court of Ohio will be the speaker at the April convocation, according to announcement made by Dr. McVey Tuesday.

ROMANY TO GIVE "THE ENCHANTED COTTAGE"

Oskar Hambleton will carry the masculine lead as Oliver Bashforth. The feminine lead will be carried by Miss Violet Young, who will take the part of Laura Pennington. Miss Young appeared at the Romany last year in "Lilium," "Intimate Strangers" and in "The Merry Game."

The part of Mrs. Smallwood, Bashforth's mother, will be played by Miss Margot Semmes, the guest of Miss Betsy Cloud. H. B. Carpenter, a senior in the college of Engineering, will carry the role of Rupert Smallwood, her husband.

The part of Major Murray Hillgrove will be taken by Churchill Newcomb, managing editor of the "Chase" magazine, who has had experience with the Harvard Players. The Rev. Charles Corsewill will be represented by Lake Woolridge of Louisville, a freshman at the university. The part of Mrs. Corsewill will be taken by Miss Margaret Woolridge, who has appeared with the Louisville Players and who was to have carried a role in "White Chips," but illness prevented her taking the part.

Miss Ann Callihan, acting head of the art department, will appear as Mrs. Minett. Miss Callihan is in charge of the stage setting, which is being executed by Henry Harper, William Burks, Guy Briggs, Grant Willis and Bob Kay.

The dream characters will be portrayed by Misses Alice Bell Halley, Fannie Bruce Loughridge, Elizabeth Pemberton of Winchester, and Messrs. James Cogar of Midway, William Pettie and James Davidson.

There will be a musical theme running throughout the play, directed by Mr. Cromwell Allen of Morganfield, assisted by Miss Jeanette Lampert on the violin.

For Young Men There is nothing like a STETSON

MOST young men today know the importance of looking fit. Good appearance counts much in the game of life. The young man who dresses with taste has a decided advantage.

But—it is surprising how little thought the average man gives to his hat. It is his crown, yet he seems to stop dressing at the neck.

Be careful in your selection of your headwear. When you buy a hat, select a Stetson. Its style is right, its quality means long wear.

MISS ELLIOTT TO ADDRESS WOMEN

"Joys of Teaching" Subject of Required Lecture

Miss Harriet Elliott will speak in the basketball auditorium today at the sixth hour. Her subject will be "The Joys of Teaching." Although the lecture is compulsory for women students, Miss Blanding trusts that they will come determined to enjoy what Miss Elliott has to say. The doors of the building will be locked at 1:45 and no one will be allowed admittance after that time.

Only those who have a class at the sixth hour will be excused, and that excuse on condition that they fill out a blank which all women students will receive, and placed in a box at Miss Blanding's door before Thursday noon, March 28.

Miss Elliott is a former student of Dean Melcher and Dean Paul P. Boyd of the college of Arts and Sciences. At present she occupies the chair of History at the North Carolina College for Women.

The girls of the residence halls will give a tea Friday afternoon at Patterson Hall in honor of Miss Elliott.

SENIOR WEEK WILL BE OBSERVED HERE

To be Celebrated Week of Arbor and May Day

Senior week at the university will be celebrated the week of Arbor Day and May Day, which has become an annual fiesta for the students, including the freshmen.

The traditional corduroy trousers and canes for the boys will be sported by every male eligible to a Bachelor's degree. In many schools senior girls can be distinguished from the underclasswomen, but this custom has not been instituted at the University of Kentucky.

This year, however, the question is being debated as to what mode of dress can be worn exclusively by the senior women. It was first thought that Kentucky blue scarfs would adorn the necks of the departing coeds. For some reason this idea was abolished and the latest decision is for each girl to wear a blue arm band bearing the class numerals. Although this plan is not positively decided upon, the committee thinks that the plan will be adopted.
